TAG 2017 Conference Recap

With a sold out crowd and record attendance, this year's conference kicked off with an amazing plenary about creating a culture of learning that set the tone for a fantastic conference.

You can download the presentations and look at the conference photos. If you attended the conference, you can also watch the recordings for the security and emerging technologies plenaries by going to the session in the mobile app.

Many thanks to all the presenters, exhibitors and attendees for helping make TAG 2017 a great experience!

Emerging Technology Reading List—and Thank You!

Once again, Mark Bolgiano, Gavin Clabaugh and Tim Dechant wowed us with their emerging technology presentation at TAG 2017. This year's topic was artificial intelligence.
