BYLAWS

INTRODUCTION

God raised up this fellowship of churches, ministers and believers as a special witness. The Evangelical Network (TEN) was officially launched in 1988 as a loosely knit network of individual believers who were evangelical in their belief system. During the annual TEN-weekend conference in Phoenix in February 1994, TEN reorganized into a fellowship of independent churches, ministries and Christian workers.

The Bylaws contained in this booklet are the operating structure of this fellowship. They are not infallible and are subject to periodic revision.
