Payment & Signature

This application is not complete until payment is received and this section signed and dated. Please select from one of the following options (required):

Payment by enclosed check for 100% of dues.

Payment by enclosed check for 25% of dues, with the remainder to be paid in quarterly installments, completed no later than March 15, 2017. I understand that my membership can be suspended if payment is not received on time.

Payment by credit card for 100% of dues. I will either telephone the Alliance myself or expect a call from its staff upon their receipt of this application and will provide full information for a valid Visa, Master Card, AMEX, or Discover card.

Payment by credit card for 25% of dues, with the remainder to be automatically charged in four equal installment between now and June 30, 2017.

 Signature (required, either digital or physical)

 Date (required)

(required) I have read the Alliance's Code of Business Ethics (available on the following page) and affirm that my agency is in full compliance. I also give permission to the Alliance and to the Foundation for Home Health, Inc., to communicate with me and other staff of this agency via e-mail and/or fax.

Franchise/Chain Discount

If two or more non-certified agencies that are locally-owned franchises of a single home care company join the Alliance, dues for each franchise will be discounted according to the following formulae, but cannot reduce total dues below $800:

- If 2-3 agencies join, dues are discounted by 10%;
- If 4-5 agencies join, dues are discounted by 15%;
- If 6 or more agencies join, dues are discounted by 20%

Note: Under most circumstances, the Franchise/Chain Discount is based on the number of agencies that are active members of the Alliance at the time of application and first payment.

Tax Information

Contributions or gifts to the Foundation for Home Health, Inc., are tax deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. Contributions and dues to the Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts, Inc., are NOT tax deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. However, dues payments may be tax deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense subject to restrictions imposed as a result of Alliance lobbying activities: ninety and two-tenths percent (90.2%) of agency dues for 2016/2017 are tax deductible. Nine and eight-tenths percent (9.8%) of dues are allocable to lobbying activities and are not tax deductible or allowable expenses for Medicare reimbursement purposes.

Code of Business Ethics

The Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts exists to support and empower our members to advance in-home care as the therapeutic, compassionate, and client-preferred care choice of the future. Its Board of Directors adopted this Code of Business Ethics on May 11, 2011 as a statement that the Alliance and its member agencies stand for integrity and strive to maintain the highest ethical standards. Compliance with the principles set forth in this code is a condition of Agency membership.

Client/Patient Rights

1. Each client/patient is treated with courtesy and respect. Clients have the right to be informed concerning their care, and to participate in planning and approving the care they receive. Clients' wishes and preferences are honored whenever possible.
2. Client privacy is carefully guarded. Personal information is used only as needed for care planning and provision, insurance eligibility, billing, and necessary business operations. Personal information is never shared with unauthorized individuals or discussed in public.
3. Oral and written statements to clients and to the public honestly and accurately represent services, benefits, costs, and provider capability.
4. The agency has a procedure to accept, investigate, and respond to client complaints. Clients can file complaints without fear of retaliation.
5. The agency does not solicit or permit an employee to solicit clients for its services through coercion or harassment.
6. The agency makes reasonable efforts to ensure that clients have their on-going home care needs addressed and, whenever reasonably possible, gives advance notice before discontinuing services.

Quality Standards

1. The agency ensures that all caregiving staff are properly qualified, adequately trained, and periodically supervised to meet the needs of the clients they serve. The agency ensures that employees get continuing education and in-service training to update their knowledge and skills.
2. The agency conducts a criminal background check and checks references for all caregiving staff before they are assigned to provide care.
3. The agency develops a written plan of care, service plan, or care plan for each of its clients, and gives a copy of that plan to the client. Services comply with accepted standards of quality and professional practice.
4. The agency performs periodic supervisory visits for each of its clients to ensure that care is being provided consistent with the written plan of care, and that it is updated as necessary.
5. The agency has procedures to provide on-call or back-up staff to fill in for caregiving staff in case of illness or emergencies.
6. The agency has a written procedure in place to respond swiftly and compassionately whenever client abuse, neglect, or theft is suspected or alleged.

Business Practices

1. The agency conducts business in accordance with fair business practices and complies with all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations, including wage and hour, workers compensation, and anti-discrimination laws.
2. The agency directly employs not less than 90% of all caregiving staff, or contracts with other agencies that directly employ their workers. Caregiving staff are not treated as independent contractors.
3. The agency maintains comprehensive general liability insurance covering its employees while they are providing services to its clients.
4. The amount billed or paid for goods and services is commensurate with the amount and type of goods and services provided. The agency does not engage in fraud.
5. The agency does not, either directly or indirectly, solicit, offer, receive or provide illegal compensation, gifts, kick-backs or fees to or from any person or entity for the purpose of inducing or influencing such person or entity to obtain referrals from or refer clients to the agency.
6. The agency does not require caregiving staff to agree to a non-compete clause as a condition of employment.
7. The agency maintains records of all care and services provided and the client's response to the care and service.
