Pamela C. Sullivan, MD, MBA, FACP, PT

Pamela C. Sullivan, MD, MBA, FACP, PT, was born in Brooklyn and raised in Long Island, New York. She migrated to Ithaca College where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Therapy. She worked for a year at Orthopedic Hospital in Los Angeles, then returned to the east coast where she attended the Medical College of Pennsylvania. After completing a residency in Primary Care Internal Medicine at the University of Rochester, she accepted an attending position in the emergency department at Rochester General Hospital.

She remained in that position for 19 years, serving on the medical and dental staff board and executive committee for eight years, as well as many other hospital and community committees. In 2011, Dr. Sullivan eventually transitioned to the medical director position at Rochester Immediate Care in Webster, NY. Dr. Sullivan continues to practice urgent care medicine in Rochester, NY, while serving as the medical director for emergency services at Oneida Healthcare in Oneida, NY.

In December 2015, Dr. Sullivan earned her MBA from the University of Tennessee. Today, she is the President-elect for UCAOA and remains very active with the American College of Physicians serving as Chair of the NYACP Membership Committee.
