La Crosse Pediatrician's Care for Others Extends Beyond Community

Steven Manson, MD, has a fondness for quotes. His favorite from Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is posted by his desk in his office at Gundersen Health System in La Crosse, Wisconsin. It reads: "Life's most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others?"

"That reminds me routinely about how I should focus my life," Dr Manson said.

That focus extends far beyond his pediatric patients at Gundersen, where's he's practiced the last 23 years and serves as chair of the Pediatrics Department. Doctor Manson dedicates his time in many ways. Whether it's speaking to an audience at city hall about bullying or reading to a group of children at Northwoods Elementary in La Crosse, his caring for others shines through.
