EXHIBITORS FROM AROUND THE WORLD ANNOUNCED

NEW YORK – The Association of International Photography Art Dealers (AIPAD) has announced the initial list of participating galleries for the 2018 edition of The Photography Show, April 5-8, at Pier 94 in New York City. More than 100 of the world’s leading fine art photography galleries will present museum-quality work including contemporary, modern, and 19th-century photographs, as well as photo-based art, video, and new media. AIPAD is working closely with gallerists, curators, artists, and collectors to create an exciting program – including special exhibitions, talks and panel discussions, and awards and honors – for the 38th edition of the Show, which commences with a vernissage on April 4, 2018.

One of the world's most important annual photography fairs, The Photography Show is the longest running and foremost exhibition dedicated to the photographic medium. The 2018 Show – with more than 25 new participants – will feature galleries from at least 14 countries and 48 cities from across the U.S. and around the world, including Europe, Asia, Canada, and South America.
