

A July 2015 independent study by a researcher from Brigham Young University shows that associations of all sizes can benefit from partnering with an Association Management Company.

Check the Facts:

How Association Management Companies Take Associations From Good to GREAT

The study surveyed 167 associations with budgets ranging from $500,000 to $7.5 million.

Regardless of tax status or budget, associations managed by an AMC on average have:

Consistently HIGHER INCOME
from products and services

3x

more net asset growth

31%

higher revenue growth

AMC Institute (AMCI) is the leading organization advancing professionalism and high performance standards for the AMC industry.

