1. To maintain the highest possible standards in the practice of dermatology
2. To stimulate study and to extend knowledge in the field of dermatology
3. To promote a more general understanding of the nature and scope of the services rendered by osteopathic dermatologists to the other divisions of medical practice, hospitals, clinics, and the public.
4. To contribute to the best interests of the osteopathic profession by functioning as an affiliated organization of the American Osteopathic Association

Purpose
The purpose of the CME program is to provide AOA-accredited continuing medical education activities to inform the dermatologist physician. The program will provide a mechanism by which its constituents can improve competency, maintain board certification and cultivate lifelong learning. CME will provide physicians with the opportunity to further develop their knowledge through individual and group learning activities. The Continuing Medical Education Committee will monitor the quality of all programs conducted by the AOCD.

Content Areas
The content of CME activities produced by the AOCD is determined and initiated by its members. The CME program approves the activities based upon needs assessment data to ensure that all offerings present current, state-of-the-art information. Specific areas of emphasis include: (1) state-of-the-art clinical information, (2) health systems administration, (3) public health issues, (4) educational methodology, (5) professionalism in medicine, (6) cultural proficiency.

Target Audience
The primary target audience of the CME activities conducted by the AOCD are the dermatologist physician members. The program serves community physicians, volunteer clinical faculty, academic clinicians, and students affiliated with the AOCD. The program will also actively seek to broaden its audience through developing affiliations with CME providers on the national level.

Types of Activities
The core activities presented by the CME program are live conferences. The program actively encourages members to develop enduring materials as an evolving tool for continuing education. The program is committed to exploring the development of its capacity to expand resources in other educational techniques, including web-based activities and point-of-care technologies.

Expected Results
As a result of participation in the AOCD Continuing Medical Education program, practicing clinicians will have access in obtaining assistance in the correction of outdated knowledge, the acquisition of new knowledge in specific areas, mastering of new skills and the changing of attitudes or habits, etc.

These objectives will be achieved in a setting which is evidence-based, culturally sensitive, and free of commercial bias. The AOCD is committed to the practice of continuing program improvement. The AOCD will actively explore new educational technologies, develop collaborative relationships with other CME providers, and seek to build the capacity to evaluate competency-based outcomes among the clinicians we serve.

Accreditation:
The AOCD is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association.
Meeting Objectives:
The 2016 Spring Meeting will provide a diversified CME program focusing on the art and science of dermatology. Information will be presented through lectures and scientific paper presentations. Attendees will be updated on a broad range of new developments in dermatology and acquire a better understanding of advances in medical and surgical therapies. They will also gain greater insight into current trends in practice management as well as financial and medical/legal challenges facing today’s clinician.

Needs Assessments:
The program was developed based upon the needs of physicians within the association identified through: (1) a program evaluation/survey provided to meeting participants at both our annual and midyear meeting, (2) recommendations received through the mail, email, or by phone, (3) recommendations from previous program chair, and (4) new advances in dermatologic treatment identified in major publications or research studies. The Board of Trustees also meets to discuss previous conferences and to provide additional topics and potential speaker contacts.

Faculty Disclosure:
As a sponsor accredited by the AOA, it is the policy of the AOCD to require the disclosure of anyone who is in a position to control the content of an educational activity. All relevant financial relationships with any commercial interests and/or manufacturers must be disclosed.

Disclosure of Commercial Support of CME:
As you undoubtedly know from the national media, there has been much discussion concerning the relationships between CME sponsors, faculty and commercial companies providing support of CME.

Both the American Osteopathic Association and the Committee on Continuing Medical Education have adopted regulations for ethical actions in this area which the American Osteopathic College of Dermatology endorse and have adopted for all our educational activities.

Please be assured that having an affiliation with a company does not imply in any way that something is wrong or improper; however, we want to inform attendees that such a relationship exists.

Should you have any questions regarding the facilities, handouts, program content, or concerns about CME compliance with the AOA “Uniform Guidelines,” feel free to contact the AOCD representative:
