IMPORTANT NOTICES FOR MEETING ATTENDEES

SESSION LOCATIONS

Please note: the locations of all individual sessions will be included in the paper program that you will receive when you pick up your registration materials at the meeting.

To save on printing costs, the program will be available only online prior to the meeting; with the exception of plenary sessions, the online version does not include session locations.

In addition, locations for sessions on the first evening (December 27) will be posted in the registration area.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT REGISTRATION

Please note: it costs $40 less to register in advance than to register at the meeting. The advance registration rates are the same as last year, but the additional cost of registering at the meeting has increased.

Online advance registration is available at www.apaonline.org until December 15.

Please note: there is a $5 charge for replacement name badges and meeting programs.

Essay Prizes
An annual prize of $5,000 is offered for the best essay—already published in or under review with a recognized journal—on some aspect of Miller’s philosophy. Authors are welcome to send a letter of application with the manuscript of the essay to the Miller Fund.

Research Fellowships
Candidates working on a book-length project addressing Miller’s philosophy are encouraged to send applications (including a proposal, CV, writing samples, and no fewer than two letters of recommendation) to the Miller Fund for awards up to $45,000.

Complete information on essay prizes and fellowships, as well as the basic texts of and secondary commentary on Miller's philosophy, can be found at the Website for the Fellowship Fund: http://sites.williams.edu/miller/
