“Kindling Synergy in Pediatric Surgical Care: Professional and Clinical Collaborative Practice” CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

1. Discuss advances in theoretical and clinical knowledge impacting individuals affected by pediatric surgical care issues.
2. Exchange innovative ideas and experiences with professional colleagues from a variety of pediatric surgical health care settings.
3. Identify current evidence-based approaches for the diagnosis and management of multiple pediatric surgical health care issues.
4. Strengthen clinical and technical skills in a variety of practice settings.
5. Participate in networking opportunities and collaborations.
6. Recognize current issues, priorities, and implications for the pediatric surgical patient population and the associated professional nursing roles within the new models of care emerging in our healthcare milieu.
7. Strengthen professional communication: writing for publication, poster development, and professional presentations.
Dear Colleagues:

I am pleased to invite you to the 23rd Annual APSNA conference, Kin dling Synergy in Pediatric Surgical Care: Professional and Clinical Collaborative Practice—Monday, May 26–Thursday, May 29, 2014, at the J.W. Marriott Desert Ridge Resort and Spa in Phoenix, AZ. We have hosted our meeting at this resort in the past and I am sure you will find that it is one of the most beautiful locations we have visited. Phoenix holds fond memories for me because it was there that I began my long history of leadership with APSNA and is a place where many professional relationships and friendships were kindled. The symbol of the Phoenix which is our conference logo this year is a metaphor for transformation. This has special meaning this year because APSNA has taken major steps in transforming itself over the past year and this is reflected in the content and the events we have planned for you.

Our Program Chair, Raquel Pasarón, and her planning committee have organized our first Pre-Session this year. The topic will be within the professional practice domain entitled "Publishing Posters and Presentations: Where to Start and How to Get to your Goal.” We hope that you will arrange your travel so that you won’t miss this premier event. APSNA has made great strides in our global initiatives and we have invited international presenters in addition to the nationally known speakers you have come to enjoy in the past.

We are repeating our speaker exchange with the National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners (NAPNAP) and this year past NAPNAP President Susan N. Van Cleeve DNP, CRNP, will present "Addressing the Mental Health Needs of the Hospitalized Pediatric Patient.” We are ex-anding on our partnership with NAP-NAP by adding a joint session entitled Transition Challenges in Chronic Care: Examples from Children with Intestinal Failure,” which will be presented at both of our annual meetings by Stacey Lerret, PhD, CPNP-AC/PC, and I. We continue to focus on leadership development and continue to draw from the initiatives of other organizations through or participation in the Nursing Organization Alliance and the Nursing Alliance Leadership Academy and through that collaboration we have planned sessions on membership engagement, which will be addressed by a series of round table focus groups.
It has been a major concern for me as President that we focus more on meeting Member need. Each of you will have an opportunity to share your ideas about how to improve services to the diverse members of our organization. Additional round table focus groups will include clinical topics such as sports injuries, ostomy care, bowel management, treatment of empyema and ulcerative colitis to name a few.

Our trauma SIG has submitted a position statement on Distracted Driving and will be hosting a roundtable focus group to gather member input to determine how APSNA and the Trauma SIG can develop focused initiatives related to this issue. We also have several social events planned.
We will repeat the Silent Auction which was a big hit last year and this will be sponsored by Kimberly-Clark and have planned a cocktail mixer prior to our Founders Banquet, sponsored by AMT.

Last and most assuredly not least, our textbook Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient has won the 2013 AJNBook of the Year Award. Congratulations to all of our Editors, Authors, and Contributors. We will be hosting an event to showcase this award at our Welcome Reception. Please don’t miss this and take some time to celebrate this outstanding accomplishment. There is so much more to say that is beyond the scope of this introduction, but I would encourage you to perse through the conference brocade and encourage all of you to join us this year.

Exhibits

The APSNA 23rd Annual Scientific Meeting will feature booths that showcase products and services specifically designed for interdisciplinary leaders in the study and treatment of pediatric surgical nursing. By visiting the exhibit floor, you will experience firsthand the technology, products, and services that can help you manage your professional goals and strategic objectives and keep you and your organization at the forefront of your field.

Posters

The 23rd Annual Scientific Meeting will feature two categories of posters, Evidence-Based or Original Research and Innovation in Patient Care/Case Study/Reports. Presenters will be on hand to discuss their posters and answer questions during the times delineated on the left.

The selected posters will present the best innovations and research in the study and treatment of pediatric surgical care. Poster abstracts selected for presentation at the annual meeting will be available online in a searchable database to allow registrants to plan their poster viewing in advance of the meeting.

Poster abstracts selected for presentation at the meeting will be published in a supplemental issue of The Journal of Pediatric Surgical Nursing, the official journal of APSNA.
Who Should Attend

The 23rd Annual APSNA Scientific Meeting is intended for a dynamic, growing body of members representing various nursing roles including bedside nurses, operating room, advanced practice nurses, nurse managers and educators. APSNA also welcomes other health care professionals. We enjoy the support of colleagues who identify with the challenges and rewards of pediatric surgical care. APSNA prides itself on the diverse expertise and contributions of its members who have pioneered new roles and continue to refine their practice to meet the demands of an ever changing health care environment. Attendees will benefit from a wide range of topics and faculty presenting on original evidence-based, research findings and/or new and innovative ideas for successful approaches and clinical application to pediatric surgical nursing and/or related areas.

Paperless Meeting

Internet service will be available in the meeting space of the resort FREE OF CHARGE. Registrants will be able to access and view the handout materials online before the annual meeting, beginning late-April 2014. APSNA will not print a paper syllabus of speakers’ handouts. Before you leave for the conference, print or download the handouts you want to your laptop or mobile device. Please note that materials are posted to the Website as soon as we receive them from the presenters. Not all sessions may have handouts. After the conference the presentations will remain on-line for 3 months.

Program Evaluation Tool

APSNA offers its meeting evaluation in an online format. Meeting registrants will receive a unique password and instructions via e-mail explaining how to access the online evaluation before they arrive in Marco Island. The online evaluation can be completed during the meeting or after attendees have returned home. Participants will receive their CE certificate immediately when they submit their evaluations online.

We encourage all attendees to complete this evaluation regardless of whether they are seeking CE credits. For more information, visit www.APSNA.org.

Why Should You Attend....

95% of last year’s attendees rated the meeting as good or excellent. In addition:

- 94% said their patient care competencies improved because of the meeting
- 88% stated that their professional needs were met
- 95% would recommend this conference to other colleagues

"Excellent meeting, speakers were excellent, good organization, attention to details made the conference a success.”

Continuing Education

This program is not yet approved for contact hours. Conference organizers plan to request XXX NAPNAP CE contact hours of which XXX contain pharmacology (Rx) content and XX contain trauma content per the National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners Continuing Education Guidelines.

This program is not yet approved for CME credit. Conference organizers plan to request XXX of AAPA Category 1 CME credit from the Physician Assistant Review Panel.
Nancy Browne, MS, PNP-BC, CBN
Nancy Browne is a pediatric nurse practitioner (PNP) with over 20 years of experience in pediatric surgical nursing. Ms. Browne’s interest in nursing education and publication is reflected in the following professional activities: APSNA Publication Chair and publisher of the APSNA newsletter 1993-1997, Editor of Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient (2nd & 3rd Ed.), and currently Editorial Board Member of APSNA’s Journal of Pediatric Surgical Nursing. Ms. Browne's publications include the topics: Bias/Discrimination of obese children, weight management for children and adolescents, and writing for publication by nurses.

Lynne D. Farber, MSN, CPNP
Lynne Farber is an Assistant Professor with the division of Pediatric Surgery at UNC, and has worked with the team for 15 years. Lynne received her BSN in 1981 from Mount Saint Mary College in NY and her MSN from UNC-Chapel Hill with certification in both Pediatric Primary and Acute Care. Special interests include caregiver education, pain control, and nutrition. Lynne has recently been honored with the Advanced Practice Provider Award for ongoing excellence in the care of surgical patients and daily instruction of surgical residents (2013), the APSNA Founders Award for excellence in the field of pediatric surgical nursing (2008), the Great 100 Nurses in North Carolina (2009), and the James Emonson North Carolina Children's Honour (2008). Lynne currently serves on the PNCB Acute Care Pediatric Updates Committee, and has served as Publications Chair, IS Chair and President of APSNA (American Pediatric Surgical Nurse Association). Several of her publications include: Care and management with patients with tubes and drains and Intussusception in the textbook, Nursing Care of the Pediatric General Surgery Patient (2012 and 2007).

Carmel McComiskey, DNP, PCPNP, CPNP-AC
Dr. McComiskey is the Director of Nurse Practitioners and Physician Assistants at University of Maryland Medical Center and Assistant Professor of Nursing, UMSON. From 1981- to present, Carmel has worked in Pediatric Surgery. She is a member of numerous professional organizations including APSNA, where she is a charter member and served on the board for ten years and as president from 1999-00. She is currently collaborating with the ANA to revise the Scope and Standards of Pediatric Nursing and has been appointed to serve as an evaluator for the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education. She has given many professional presentations and published articles in many journals. She is an editor of Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient (2013) and served as Assistant Editor for The Journal of Bariatric Nursing and Surgical Patient from 2010 to 2013.

Jeannette Zerpa, MSN, ARNP, PNP-BC
Jeannette Zerpa is a PNP who has lectured extensively, both nationally and internationally, on pediatric surgery topics. She has also published and presented on the topic of improving public speaking and formal presentations and has an interest in mentoring novice presenters. Ms. Zerpa was an associate editor Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient, and has been a member of APSNA for over 20 years, serving as President from 2008-2009.

Raji Koppolu, RN, MS, CPNP Raji Koppolu is a PNP, working in pediatric surgery at Lucile Packard Children’s Hospital. She is currently on the board NAPNAP and volunteer faculty at the University of California, School of Nursing. In these roles, she has presented posters both locally and nationally on a variety of topics including: the creation of a Hispanic Center for pediatric surgery patients and discharge management of complex cardiac patients, winning best “evidence-based project” poster award the year it was presented at the annual NAPNAP conference.

Kimberly Haus Mciltrot, DNP,CPNP, CWOCN
Kimberly Haus Mciltrot began her career as an Army nurse 25 years ago specializing in Maternal Child Health. For the past 15 years she has worked as a Nurse Practitioner (NP) in Pediatric Surgery at Johns Hopkins Hospital and received her Doctorate of Nursing Practice (DNP) in 2010. Dr. Mciltrot is serving her second term as Publication Chair for APSNA. She has worked to establish APSNA’s Journal of Pediatric Surgical Nursing and serves as Editor-in-Chief. Dr. Mciltrot has written articles for several journals as well as chapters in wound care and pediatric surgery.

Pam Pieper, PhD, ARNP, PPCNP-BC
Pam Pieper has worked as an advanced practice pediatric surgical nurse since 1984, with a joint appointment at the University of Florida College of Nursing since 1991. She contributed to all three editions of Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient as an author, as well as being an editor of the last two editions. Topics on which she has published include pediatric trauma, health-related quality of life in children sustaining a concussion, ethics of children’s assent for research participation, conducting telephone interviews with children, and necrotizing enterocolitis.
APSNA warmly welcomes all to its first Pre-Conference Workshop!
This 3 hour workshop focuses on professional communication: writing for publication, poster development, and professional presentations. The workshop is sponsored by APSNA to meet the organization’s mission of promoting optimal pediatric surgical nursing care for children through education. The workshop features four 30 minute presentations followed by an informal panel discussion with the Faculty. Attendees are encouraged to bring questions, challenges, and current projects for discussion with the panel and other attendees.

The four presentations will focus on the following topics:

Writing for Publication
- Types and styles of writing
- Writing Process
- Ethics
- Organizing and Time management
- APA and AMA styles
- Mentorship
- Resources

Presentations at Podium
- Topic
- Audience
- Types of presentations
- PowerPoint tips
- Flow of presentation
- Performance tips

Poster Presentation
- Topic
- Format
- Design tips

Submitting for Publication/Presenting Opportunities
- Journal submission
- Call for Abstracts Conferences
- Call for Podium Speaker
- How to write an abstract
- How to send Query
- Follow-through with Editor

Early flights from major U.S. cities allow enough time for attendees to reach Phoenix and the Workshop at the Conference Center.

The workshop will have its own registration and there will be a nominal fee for attendance.

Attendees will receive CEU credit upon completion.

Please join us for this interactive workshop that will support your presentation and publication efforts. Develop collegial relationships that will mentor you for this and future projects. Experienced faculty will be available throughout the APSNA Conference to continue conversation and mentorship! Welcome!

Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient, Third Edition by Nancy Tkacz Browne, Laura M. Flanigan, Carmel A. McComiskey, and Pam Pieper was awarded second place in the 2013 AJN Book of the Year Awards in the Child Health category. Published in partnership with APSNA, Nursing Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient, Third Edition is the must-have resource for all health care providers involved in the care of the general pediatric surgical patient. Representing the educational mission of APSNA to improve the nursing care of pediatric surgical patients, this textbook includes information on pre- and post-operative care, minimally invasive surgery, innovative therapies, surgically treated congenital anomalies, pediatric solid tumors, and care of tubes, drains, wounds, and ostomies. This text teaches readers how to be technologically savvy, clinically competent, and able to tend to emotional and psychosocial needs of the child and family. Completely updated and revised, this new edition includes an expanded focus on topics such as organ transplantation, pain, bowel management, and fluid and electrolytes.

About the AJN

The American Journal of Nursing (AJN) is the world’s oldest and most prestigious peer-reviewed and evidence-based nursing journal. AJN’s mission is to promote excellence in nursing and health care through the dissemination of evidence-based, peer-reviewed clinical information and original research, discussion of relevant and controversial professional issues, adherence to the standards of journalistic integrity and excellence, and promotion of nursing perspectives to the health care community and the public.
