2.1.5 Provide an effective, unified and authoritative voice in dealing with issues relating to diagnostic imaging and interventional procedures for medical practitioners involved in these areas.

2.1.6 Work closely with other societies and programs to achieve the goals of the Society, and

2.1.7 Pursue other charitable purposes.

2.2 Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Society shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted by an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by any organization contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of such Code and regulations.

2.3 Upon the dissolution of the Society, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Such recipient or recipients shall be selected by the Council of the Society at that time. Such recipient or recipients shall preferably be an institution or organization that performs medical and/or educational charitable work.

2.4 It shall be the duty of the Council to establish all policies governing the administration of the fiscal assets of said Society and to determine the services to be rendered by this Society.

2.5 The Society shall at all times be operated on a non-profit basis, and no interest or dividends shall be paid or payable by the Society to any Councilor as such and shall be operated for the charitable purposes for which said Society was created.

ARTICLE III OFFICES

- 3.1 Principal Office: The principal office of the Society shall be at such place as the Council may select from time to time.
- 3.2 Additional Offices: In addition to the principal office, the Society may have such other offices as may be helpful or convenient to the Society's operations.

ARTICLE IV MEMBERSHIP

- 4.1 There shall be five categories of membership: Active Members (herein referred to as "Members"), Associate Members, Members-in-Training, Emeritus Members and Supporting Members.

- 4.1.1 Active Membership:

- 4.1.1-a The active membership shall be made up of physicians who maintain an active interest in the field of nephrological diagnostic imaging and/or interventional procedures. These physicians may be trained in any basic medical specialty as long as they can document training and/or experience in this field, that this represents a major emphasis of their medical practice and that they have a continuing active interest in the field.

- 4.1.1-b Active membership shall be gained by submission of a completed membership application and payment of appropriate dues and fees.

- 4.1.1-c Active Members shall be eligible to hold office in the Society, serve on committees, and vote for the election of officers and on all matters brought before the general membership.

4.2 Termination of Membership:

Any membership can be terminated by a majority vote of the Council for conduct that is judged to be injurious to the interests or welfare of the Society, or failure to pay dues within 60 days of the due date.

4.3 Resignation of Membership:

- 4.3.1 Any member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary. Such resignation shall not relieve the member of the obligation to pay any dues, assessment, or other charges theretofore accrued and unpaid.
- 4.3.2 Dues that have been paid prior to the time of resignation of membership shall not be refunded or prorated at the time of membership termination.
- 4.4 Record Date: The Record Date shall be determined by the Council in its sole discretion but shall in no event be more than seventy (70) days or fewer than twenty (20) days prior to the date of the membership vote.

ARTICLE V

MEETING OF MEMBERS

- 5.1 Annual Meeting of the Membership: An annual meeting of the membership shall be held on a date and at an hour and place to be fixed by the Council. Notice shall be provided to all members of the Society not less than thirty (30) days before the meeting. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the time designated shall not work forfeiture or dissolution of the Society and in the event of such failure, the annual meeting shall be held within a reasonable time thereafter.
- 5.1.1 The purpose of the annual meeting of the membership shall include:
- 5.1.1-a the installation of new officers for the forthcoming year;
 - 5.1.1-b a review of the financial status of the Society; and
 - 5.1.1-c such other business as is deemed appropriate by the Council.
- 5.2 Special Meeting of the Membership:
- 5.2.1 The President may call special meetings of the membership. A majority of the Council, or not less than one-tenth of the Active Members of the Society, may require the President to call a special meeting of the Society.
- 5.2.2 It shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause written or printed notice of a special meeting stating the place, day and hour of the meeting to be delivered, either personally, by email or by US mail to the membership no less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting. The notice of the meeting shall include the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is being called. If sent by email, the notice of the meeting shall be deemed to be delivered when sent to the email address as it appears on the records of the society. If sent by US mail, the notice of the meeting shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States Mail addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the Society, with postage thereon prepaid.
- 5.3 Quorum for Meetings of Membership:

At any meeting of the membership, properly called and announced as required herein, the number of members appearing for said meeting shall constitute the quorum necessary for transaction of the business of the meeting.

5.4 Conduct of Meetings of Membership:

All meetings of the Society shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, or as it may be amended from time to time.

5.5 Actions of Society without a Meeting of the Membership:

In the event that it is necessary for the Society to act upon a question without being able to meet, the Secretary, upon an order from the Council, shall provide to each member having voting rights a ballot and a statement setting forth in adequate detail the question to be voted on. The Council shall determine the medium of the ballot and the method of its distribution which may include electronic means. A simple majority of those Active Members responding to the ballot shall constitute affirmative action of the membership.

5.6 Minutes of Meetings of Membership:

The Secretary of the Society and the Secretary of each Committee (or the Chairman's designee if no secretary exists) shall prepare accurate minutes of each meeting thereof. The minutes shall contain a record of attendance and the vote taken on all matters, including matters that are not successfully passed. The minutes shall be signed by the Secretary and the President (or the committee chairman in the case of meetings of a committee) and shall be maintained as a permanent record. Copies of the minutes of all meetings shall be made available upon request to those having a right to attend the meeting.

5.7 Voting at Meetings of Membership: Any member entitled to vote and who is in good standing with the Society may cast one (1) vote in the election of Councilors and in all other matters properly before the membership.

5.8 Place of Meetings of Membership: The Council will designate the place for the annual or any special meetings. The Council may designate any place for annual or special meetings. If no other place is designated, annual and special meetings will be held at the principal offices of the Society.

5.9 Notice of Meetings of Membership: Written notice shall be deemed to be delivered when it is either sent to the email address as it appears on the records of the society or it deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his last known address, postage prepaid.

5.10 Waiver for Meetings of Membership: In lieu of any notice of meeting or place of meeting, such membership meeting may be held at any time and at any place upon the waiver of notice thereof by all of the members. The attendance of a member at any meeting shall be deemed a waiver of notice of said meeting unless his appearance at such meeting is made for the sole purpose of objecting to the transactions of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

The accounts of the Society shall be subject to audit at a frequency determined by the Council, but not less than once every four years, by a Certified Public Accountant. The Secretary/Treasurer with the approval of the President will appoint this individual. The accountant shall provide a written report including a certified audit to the Council.

ARTICLE XI

DUES

- 11.1 Annual Dues: The Council may determine from time to time the amount of the annual dues payable to the Society by members of each category.
- 11.2 Payment of Dues: Notice of dues shall be mailed to each member annually. The period of time covered by each year's dues shall correspond to the calendar year. Failure to pay dues within 60 days of due date shall result in termination of membership at the discretion of the Council. Termination of membership for non-payment of dues shall not entitle the individual to a hearing as described in Article VIII paragraph. 8.5.
- 11.3 Initial Payment of Dues: Initial payment of dues shall be required at the time of application for membership. The period of time covered by this payment shall be that period from the time payment is received until the next date upon which the annual payment of dues is required for the general membership except in instances specifically exempted by the Council.

ARTICLE XII
ADOPTION AND AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES

12.1 Adoption of Bylaws: These Articles may be adopted by a resolution approved by a majority of the membership present and voting at the first annual meeting following their approval by the Council of the Society. These Bylaws may be amended or altered at the time of such meeting by a majority vote of said membership.

12.2 Changes to Bylaws:

12.2.1 These Articles may be altered, amended, or repealed and new Articles be adopted by a resolution approved by a majority of the membership present and voting at the annual meeting, or by membership ballot in any form permitted by law, or at any special meeting, if at least thirty (30) days written notice is given of an intention to alter, amend, or repeal these Articles or to adopt new Articles at such meeting: provided that a quorum of at least twenty (20) members at the annual meeting, or ballots cast by at least fifty (50) members, is required to amend the Bylaws.

12.2.2 The basis for proposed changes to the Bylaws shall originate from the Council. It shall be the responsibility of the Council to review these Articles from time to time to determine if additions, deletions, or other changes are appropriate. Additionally, any member in good standing may recommend a change to the Articles to the Council for their consideration. Proposed changes based upon such recommendations shall be at the discretion of the Council.

12.2.3 Changes that are purely editorial in nature will be made by the Executive Committee and require no action by the Membership of the Society.

12.2.4 No change in the Bylaws will be adopted that is inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation of the Society. In instances in which such a change is contemplated, a change in the Articles of Incorporation must first be accomplished, providing such change is allowed by the laws of the State of Delaware.
