Advancing Knowledge
Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to Montreal! On behalf of the SCMS Board of Directors, our new Executive Director, our staff, the Montreal Host Committee, and the volunteers and consultants who have worked assiduously on the conference, I extend our best wishes to you for a productive and fun conference. Special thanks to the Host Committee, chaired by Haidee Wasson, for designing special events to further engage you in your time in the city.

The conference location, the Fairmont Queen Elizabeth, is a landmark of this great city with a rich history as one of Canada’s railroad hotels. Queen Elizabeth II stayed here, as did India’s Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, China’s Zhao Ziyang, and South Africa’s Nelson Mandela, among other dignitaries. John Lennon and Yoko Ono are perhaps the most famous couple to lay their heads on Fairmont QE’s pillows. In 1969 Lennon and Ono staged a “bed-in” here, where Lennon also wrote his anti-war anthem, “Give Peace a Chance.” Please note that tours of their suite (1742) will be available during your stay. On a different front, no matter what the weather might be like, make sure to take the elevator down to the plaza underneath the Fairmont, which offers an impressive array of eateries and boutiques, handy for a quick meal or some shopping or, if time allows, for more general flâneurie.

I also want to warmly welcome SCMS’s newly appointed Executive Director, Jill Simpson. The hiring of an Executive Director came after long preparation by the SCMS Board to meet a central goal of the Society’s strategic plan: to update its administrative structure to accord with those of other learned societies and to have consistent leadership through the changes that each election brings in board membership. The search committee selected Jill from a large national pool of applicants and after several rounds of interviews. An alumna of Radio-TV-Film and Journalism at the University of Oklahoma, she comes to us more recently from her previous job as Director of the Oklahoma Film and Music Office and, before that, from working in Hollywood. Jill is a strong leader and advocate for the arts, bringing to SCMS extensive experience in film, TV, music, and new media. She will help to shape the future of the Society. We are thrilled that she has joined us and will be introducing her to you at a number of events at the Montreal Conference. We know that she is looking forward to meeting our members in person—please feel free to introduce yourself to her. Huge thanks once again to the members of the search committee—Steven Cohan (chair), Patrice Petro, Jim Castonguay, Jane Dye, Leslie LeMond, and Vicki Sturtevant—for helping to achieve this milestone for the Society.

This year, we are happy to announce that you elected several new members to the board—Amanda Klein as Treasurer, and as board members, Mary Beltrán and Mary Desjardins. Election results in 2015 for the President, Secretary, and two board members will bring additional colleagues on to the board. As the cycle goes, this means that several board members will be stepping down. Chris Holmlund’s six-year term as President-Elect, President, and Past President, will soon be ending. She has been an amazing leader, colleague, and friend in each of the phases of the presidency, working with the best interests of the Society and its membership in mind, while sharing her wisdom with fellow board members. In his capacity as Secretary, Corey Creekmur has been a wordsmith extraordinaire as he has wrestled with documenting sometimes epic meetings—a talent that the Society has very much appreciated. Board member Haidee Wasson spearheaded the “Fieldnotes” project—an oral history of field pioneers in film, television, and new media—as part of her legacy to SCMS and the discipline. Sean Griffin, who agreed with good humor to begin each meeting with a song, has been liaison to the SCMS Scholarly Interest Groups, a position that requires substantial commitment to the sub-groups that are part of SCMS’s lifeblood. As Graduate Student Organization Representative, Lindsay Giggey has been a pleasure to work with and has avidly pursued the interests of her fellow graduate students in SCMS. Finally, Jane Dye, who has worked in the Home Office for sixteen years as Administrative Coordinator, retires this year. As she is recipient of the 2015 Service Award, we will have the opportunity to recognize the enormous contributions she has made to the membership and board at the Award’s Ceremony. SCMS has benefitted so greatly from having had all of these individuals in its administration. I am extremely grateful for everything they have done and I know I speak for those remaining on the board when I say they will be sorely missed.

Speaking of endings, this is my last year as SCMS President. As both President-Elect and President, I have learned much more about the field of film and media studies—a field I thought I already knew well—than I could ever have imagined, gaining an expansive view of the innovative and increasingly diverse work being done in relation to multiple media. I have had the opportunity to meet old and new members alike at the conference and the privilege of honoring colleagues at the annual Awards Ceremony for their extraordinary achievements in the field. These have been among the most exciting and rewarding aspects of the position for me. At the same time, serving on the Board with a talented and wonderful group of colleagues and SCMS staff members has been another true highlight of the experience. Along with our members, their dedication and good will make the SCMS world go round. As I become Past President, I look forward to continuing to serve SCMS and to enthusiastically welcome Steve Cohan as he steps into the Presidency.

In closing, this letter would not be complete without thanking Jane Dye, Leslie LeMond, Debbie Rush, Ron Evans, and Aviva Dove-Viebahn for lending their expertise so generously to the betterment of the Society and its service to its members.

Sincerely,

Barbara Klinger
President, SCMS
Welcome! Bienvenue!

As Chair of this year’s Program Committee, I want to welcome you all to Montreal, a bustling cosmopolitan city well worth visiting despite the potential for cold weather at this time of year. As you can tell from the program, though, you will have keen competition with sightseeing. This year we had a record number of submissions, and given the very high caliber of your proposals, we consequently also have a record number of panels and workshops. We are bursting at the seams at the Fairmont Queen Elizabeth, making use of every conference room made available to us, large and small, from early morning until early evening. If you should find yourself in a room that seems too large or small, I hope that the quality and diversity of topics and the variety of methodological approaches as they represent exciting new work in cinema and media studies will engage you beyond your surroundings. Additionally, I’d like to invite graduate students to attend the various social events and workshops that their representative on the Board, Lindsay Giggey, has planned for them, new members to attend the orientation meeting on Thursday, and all members to attend the business meeting, awards ceremony, and reception on Friday. And don’t forget to look for the times when your SIGs and caucuses are meeting and sponsoring panels.

Still wondering if there is enough to do? The Host Committee has arranged two exciting off-site events: “Satosphere,” a 20 minute showcasing of a 360-degree spherical screen with 157 audio speakers (on Friday evening) and “Experiments in 3D,” a showing of Norman McLaren’s restored shorts, along with a documentary about his musical compositions (on Saturday evening). Each event is not too far from the hotel, and you will find much more information about each inside the program. A big thanks to Haidee Wasson in her capacity as Host Committee Chair and to the people who worked on her committee, notably Luca Caminati and Marc Steinberg, as well as Charles Acland, Anthony Kinik, Krista Lynes, Katie Russell, Masha Salazkina, and Tom Waugh. For their work on this committee, Haidee and I also wish to express our special debt of gratitude to Beatrice Bartolome, Philip Keidl, Kester Dyer, Alison Loader, and Zach Melzer. If everything goes as planned, also be on the lookout for possible special pop-up events that the Host Committee is hoping to arrange as surprises for us in the hotel during the conference. SCMS is very grateful to Concordia University for its generous financial support of conference events. Finally, the program lists ancillary events and social gatherings not planned by SCMS or the Host Committee, but certainly of interest to many members. Bursting at the seams, we are!

Numerous other people have made this conference possible. I want to acknowledge the hard work of the program committee, especially since the record number of submitted proposals put unexpected pressure on their time: Michela Ardizzoni, Mary Beltrán, Norman Coates, Glyn Davis, Mary Desjardins, Mark Gallagher, Sean Griffin, Kristen Hatch, Chris Holmlund, Kara Keeling, Moya Luckett, Neepa Majumdar, Tamar Jeffers McDonald, Alan Nadel, Sarah Projansky, Joanna Rapf, Angelo Restivo, Kevin Sanson, Victoria Sturtevant, Kirsten M. Thompson, Joe Tompkins, and, doing double duty, Haidee Wasson. Thank you all for your service to SCMS. We would not be here in Montreal without their willingness to help plan the conference, and I hope I have an opportunity to thank each of them in person during the week.

Finally, I want to thank the SCMS staff who work tirelessly behind the scenes on all aspects of the conference without taking a break: our conference manager Leslie LeMond, who not only made all the arrangements for us with the hotel but, along with Del LeMond, will be working at Command Central during the week; Bruce Brasell, our program scheduler, who somehow works his magic in creating the schedule and then puts together the final program in a short amount of time so that a first draft can be uploaded for members in mid-December; David Rissenberg, for his assistance as I learned how to navigate the submission portal; and Aviva Dove-Viebahn, our web manager, who makes sure everything we need to know is at our Internet fingertips before and during the conference. At the home office in Norman, the conference would be impossible without the assistance of Debbie Rush, Ron Evans, and last but not least, Jane Dye. Without Jane’s contributions, my own work in heading the program committee would never have gotten off the ground.

Enjoy SCMS 15!

Steven Cohan
SCMS President-Elect and Chair, Program Committee
Letter from the Executive Director

Dear SCMS Colleagues,

Welcome to the 2015 Conference! As your inaugural Executive Director, I look forward to meeting each of you here in Montreal, a city that more than lives up to its reputation as a vibrant and culturally rich destination. We hope you will enjoy your time here and take full advantage of the many activities SCMS has planned for you this week.

I come to SCMS with a background in film, media, arts advocacy and administration in both Los Angeles and my home state of Oklahoma. I have enjoyed a lifelong passion for cinema, spending many of the afternoons of my youth in darkened movie theaters watching everything that came to town. That same love of storytelling and moving images continues today. I count myself as fortunate to have been able to spend my long and varied career doing what I love.

In the summer of 2014 when I was selected as your new ED, I was both thrilled and honored to be joining an organization with the sterling reputation that SCMS enjoys. You are fortunate to have a group of very dedicated and talented individuals serving on your Board of Directors and the Home Office Staff. I have been struck by how deeply each of them cares about the organization and serving the needs of you, its members.

At a time when the membership numbers of many humanities-based scholarly organizations remain static or are diminishing, SCMS continues to flourish. The conference this year boasts 485 panels, an increase of over 20% since the 2010 conference in Los Angeles. In that time, our conference attendance numbers have also risen steadily, and SCMS’s membership numbers are now well over 3,000, an impressive 30% increase in the last five years.

The inclusion of “Media” in the Society for Cinema and Media Studies has, no doubt, played a role in SCMS’s rapid growth and momentum in recent years. With the emergence of new technology at breakneck speed and its ensuing impact on the methods by which we share information, the implications on our daily lives appear to be limitless. Beyond the “Media” effect, it cannot be overstated that the success of any group is based largely on its people. Without each of you, your continuing commitment and invaluable contributions, our current success would not be possible.

As the board and I continue to work to define my new role and to implement our collective key objectives over the course of the next year, I would like to open the lines of communication with you. I will be regularly providing you with website updates on the board’s activities and initiatives. In turn, I welcome your input and ideas as we move the organization forward.

Thank you for the warm welcome I have received so far. I look forward to serving you for many years to come. Have a great conference!

Best regards,

Jill Simpson
Society for Cinema and Media Studies

Founded in 1959, SCMS is a professional organization of college and university educators, filmmakers, historians, critics, scholars, and others devoted to the study of the moving image. Activities of the Society include an annual conference, Cinema Journal, the SCMS website, awards for excellence in film and media studies, and various other initiatives related to media research, education, and policy.

Become an Institutional Member!

Benefits of SCMS Institutional Membership
(membership year runs from September 1 - August 31)

Institutional members receive Cinema Journal, access to the members’ area of the website, e-newsletters, and announcements, and a profile page. In addition, institutional members will be able to have unlimited access to our Career Center enabling departments and programs to post and view job applications and to identify cinema/media scholars looking for full and/or part-time employment.

Institutional members will also be featured in the Programs/Schools area of the SCMS website, listed in our annual conference program, and in future issues of Cinema Journal. In addition, institutional members are invited to provide us with logos and links to their homepage to showcase their programs and activities throughout the SCMS website.

For more information, please visit http://www.cmstudies.org/?page=institut_membership
SCMS Graduate Student Lounge & Hospitality Area with Computer/Internet/Printer Access

room LE MONTREALAIS 2  Mezzanine Level
Feel free to hang out in this area, hold informal meetings, chat with friends, work on your computer....
All registered attendees of SCMS 2015 may use these computers free of charge.
You may also use them with flash drives to print out necessary documents.
Please limit the time you spend so that everyone can have access and limit your printing to 8 pages.
Thank you.

Terms and conditions: you agree to use these computers at your own risk.
They are public terminals and SCMS cannot be held responsible for results of usage.

Wireless Internet Access
— Standard in all meeting spaces at SCMS 2015 —
This includes the Exhibit Area (HOCHELAGA 1, 2, 3, 4  Convention Floor) and the SCMS Graduate Student Lounge & Hospitality Area (LE MONTREALAIS 2  Mezzanine Level).

Thanks for Staying at the Fairmont

If you booked a room at Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth Hotel under the SCMS room block (online or by phone), your guest room rate includes in-room, high-speed internet access.
It also includes access to the SCMS Breakfast Lounge in LES VOYAGEURS  Lobby Level March 25–29
(serving complimentary Deluxe Continental Breakfast from 6:00–9:00 am).
Please inquire at the front desk for details regarding how to log on to the Internet in your guest room and how this will be taken care of on your final bill.
Again, this applies only to those who booked directly through the hotel and under the SCMS room block.
Thank you again for attending SCMS 2015!

How Are Workshops Different than Panels?

Workshops are distinct from panels in that they focus on field-specific topics with brief presentations by presenters that lead to focused, substantive discussions and debate among workshop participants and the audience. Workshops are intended to be dialogical, interactive, and productive workspaces with topics typically focused on pedagogy, research strategies, and methodologies. They may also explore major intellectual issues/trends in the discipline.
2015 Audio Visual Policy

The following equipment will be standard in all panel/workshop rooms at the conference:

- DVD Player (Region 1 – standard for USA & Canada)
- LCD Projector (with audio)
- Wireless Internet Access (you will need to obtain the password at registration)

We are NOT able to accommodate changes or requests for A/V equipment onsite.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Accessibility at Fairmont The Queen Elizabeth Hotel

All sessions at the SCMS Conference are accessible to people with disabilities. The conference will span multiple floors of the hotel with ramps and ADA accessible elevators connecting all areas.

The Fairmont Queen Elizabeth is certified accessible and wheelchair friendly. There are no restrictive steps that impede full hotel access. There is an accessible restroom in the hotel's main bathrooms on the mezzanine level, accessible hotel guest rooms, and roll-in shower availability. There are well designed accessible bathrooms with extra counter space. Beds, sinks, and faucets are at a convenient height. The hotel has a full restaurant and bar, and the pool area is equipped with a wheelchair lift.

Additional special needs amenities include valet service; wheelchair accessible meeting rooms, restaurants, gift shop and gym; elevator panels in braille and/or large print, as well as service(s) for persons with a hearing and visual impairment.

Please contact the hotel before the conference if you have concerns or need special assistance of any kind during the week of the conference by dialing (514) 861-3511 and asking for group reservations or by e-mail at <QEHGroupReservationsDL@fairmont.com>. If you wish to speak with someone from SCMS, please feel free to contact Leslie LeMond, Conference Manager <leslielemond@scmsconference.com>.

The Society for Cinema & Media Studies is committed to providing access and reasonable accommodation in its services, programs, activities, education, and employment for individuals with disabilities.

Nominations for Distinguished Career Achievement & Pedagogy Awards

All SCMS members—graduate students, part- and full-time faculty, and independent scholars—are warmly encouraged to nominate scholars they consider deserving of the Distinguished Career Achievement and Pedagogy awards. A short nominating statement, submitted via an online form, is required by August 1 in each case. For further information, including additional criteria required for each award, please visit the Awards section of the SCMS website: http://cmstudies.org.

Bienvenue à Montréal! With its unique European vibe, the city is renowned for its lively and diverse cultural scenes, from high-end eateries to underground speakeasies. Montreal is essentially a bilingual city. In most restaurants and stores, you will be happily helped in English. You might find, however, some public signage written in French only. So to start we have prepared a basic language guide including a selection of frequently used terms and phrases. Most important of all, we encourage you to leave the hotel and wander around. Be curious. Embrace the weather. Discover the city’s charms!

ARRIVING IN MONTREAL

Need to Know
• Currency: Canadian dollar, 1 CAD$ = 0.81 US$ (as of February 2015)
• Most common credit cards are widely accepted. ATMs are widespread across the city in bank offices, as well as in many restaurants and stores.
• Further tourist information is available online: tourisme-montreal.org.

From the Pierre Elliott Trudeau Airport to the City

747 Express Bus
The 747 bus line provides a fast connection between the airport and downtown Montreal running 24 hours, 7 days a week. You can buy a $10 twenty-four hour pass, an $18 three-day pass, or a $25.50 weekly pass. These passes get you unlimited travel on the public transportation system throughout the city (bus and metro), including the ride from the airport. In the airport, as you exit the baggage area and enter the arrivals hall, you will find orange vending machines as well as a ticket booth with a sales agent for the Société de Transport de Montréal (STM) who will assist you in selecting the most appropriate fare. At both vending machine and ticket booth, you can use either cash or credit card. Please note that if you don’t have a ticket as you enter the bus only coins are accepted. In Canada, $1 and $2 denominations come as coins, not paper bills. There are no pennies!
The bus has nine stops between the airport and the Berri-UQAM metro hub/bus station in downtown Montreal. Stop number 5 (René-Lévesque/Mansfield) leaves you just in front of the Fairmont Queen Elizabeth Hotel. Depending on the traffic conditions, it takes approximately forty-five to sixty minutes each way. The buses offer enough space for luggage, have free WIFI, and are handicap accessible.

Taxis
A trip from the airport to the city (or from the city to the airport) costs about $40. Taxi drivers normally get a tip of ten to fifteen percent. Montreal taxis do not have a uniform color, but all of them have a “TAXI” light on top of the vehicle. Inside they should have a proof of registration and a photo ID installed in a place visible to the passenger. The average rates are $3.45 at meter drop, $1.70 per kilometer and $0.63 per minute for any delay. Not all taxis accept credit cards, so please confirm with the company when calling a taxi by phone, or confirm with the driver before you settle in for your ride.
• Diamond Taxi: (514) 273–6331 (accepts credit and debit cards)
• Taxi Royal: (514) 274–3333
• Taxi Coop Montréal: (514) 725–9885
• Atlas Taxi: (514) 485–8585

Gare Centrale/Central Station

Trains (AMTRAK and VIA) arrive and depart from this busy downtown terminal. The Queen Elizabeth Hotel is located just above the station and can be accessed directly through the tunnels. There is also a direct connection with the Montreal subway system’s orange line at Station Bonaventure. And, if you exit the hotel onto boulevard René Lévesque there are several bus lines that take you throughout the city.

Gare d’autocars/Bus Station

Montreal’s intercity bus terminal connects with the Berri-UQAM metro station hub where the orange, green, and yellow subway lines converge. From there you can easily move all around the city. Taxis are also available outside the main entrance, on rue Berri.

GETTING AROUND TOWN

Walking

Montreal is a city full of architectural sights, local shops, and lively neighborhoods. Letting yourself get lost by walking around is a great way to appreciate the city’s uniqueness. Winters are long and by late March the weather is still oscillating between cold and more spring-like temperatures. Come prepared with gloves, scarf, a hat, and a warm coat just in case. Also, during this time of the year, umbrellas or raincoats are excellent walking companions, and of course comfortable shoes. It is a short 10 to 15 minute walk from the Queen Elizabeth Hotel to Old Montreal, and even shorter to the city’s primary commercial strip on rue Sainte-Catherine. If the temperatures are cold you can walk through the tunnels that connect the hotel to Montreal’s underground city. If you are feeling sporty, a walk up rue McGill, weaving through McGill’s campus and up the mountain (Parc Mount Royal) is a great way to experience Montreal’s balance of cool cosmopolitanism and natural topography. A winding path up the mountain ends at a spectacular lookout and more public park space. The whole of the park was designed by Frederick Law Olmstead and is protected as a heritage site. Once at the top, there are magnificent views all the way to Vermont!

In general Montreal is a safe city, with a low crime rate. At night, particularly around the hotel and in the downtown area, streets are busy and full of pedestrians. Take the usual precautions and you will have no problems.

Metro and Bus

Public transportation is operated by the Société de transport de Montréal (STM). A single ticket is $3.25, transfers included. In addition, unlimited daily ($10), weekend ($13), and three-day ($18) passes are available. Weekly passes ($25.50) are available with an OPUS card—a smart card on which you can pre-pay for STM transit fares. You can buy a regular OPUS card ($6) from ticket booth attendants in metro stations. As mentioned above, one-day, three-day, weekly, and unlimited weekend passes are also accepted on board the 747-airport shuttle at no additional cost. For more information on ticket fares and the opening and closing times of individual stations visit http://www.stm.info. If you have a smartphone we recommend that you download the “STM” free app to consult bus and metro timetables.

Métro: there are four lines that operate daily from 5:30 AM to 1 AM (Saturday to 1:30 AM). The green and orange lines cover a large part of the city. The orange line stops at the Atwater Market, the Bell Centre, the Bonaventure Station (the conference hotel’s stop), the St. Denis shopping district, the Plateau and Mile End neighborhoods, and the Jean Talon market. The green line takes you directly to Concordia University, McGill University, UQAM, the Gay Village, the Botanical Gardens, and the Olympic Stadium. These two lines cross at both Lionel-Groulx and Station Berri-UQAM stations.
Host Committee Recommendations

Bus: Urban buses run around every five to ten minutes during the day and less regularly at night. Frequency depends, however, on traffic and weather conditions. In general most bus stops include a line map and timetable, but we recommend consulting the STM website’s travel planner beforehand. Note that to take the bus you either will need to buy a ticket before boarding the bus or have coins amounting to the exact fare.

Accessibility: For people with reduced mobility, many buses have low-floor ramps accessible by wheelchairs. Unfortunately only a few metro stations have an elevator. Many taxi companies, if advised beforehand, offer wheelchair-adapted cars.

FOOD

Restaurants are typically open from 11:30 AM to 2:30 PM for lunch, and from 5:30 PM to 11:30 PM for dinner. Most pubs and bars open until 3:00 AM. It is customary to offer a tip of fifteen percent of the bill, calculated before taxes. Our top restaurant picks are marked with asterisks!

Lunch/Dinner Nearby (less than fifteen minutes’ walk)

For a quick lunch or coffee break, you have two very convenient options, both directly accessible from the hotel lobby through the escalators and elevators (S2 level): the food courts in the Via Rail Gare Centrale (Central Station) Les Halles de la Gare and in Place Ville Marie mall. There you will find a variety of cafés, food counters, and other options including burgers, sandwiches, salads, sushi, pizza, and burritos.

NEIGHBORHOODS IN THE AREA (a bit of a walk or a short cab ride)

Ville Marie/Downtown Area

Ville Marie is loosely bounded by rue Sherbrooke to the north, boulevard Rene Levesque to the south, rue St. Denis to the east, and avenue Atwater to the west. The district is the heart of Montreal’s daily life, where business professionals, students, artists, and tourists mingle between skyscrapers and heritage buildings. Here you’ll find the city’s major museums, entertainment venues, shopping centers and retail stores, as well as a wide range of restaurants, bistros, and cafés for all budgets. The best places for foodies to look for lunch or dinner in all price categories are Chinatown, boulevard St. Laurent, rue St. Denis, and rue St. Catherine. Several inexpensive restaurants and colorful cafés are near Concordia University. Also part of Ville Marie is La Ville Souterraine (Underground City), a thirty-three kilometer long network of underground passages that enables pedestrians to access major train stations, hotels, shops, office buildings, universities, and city attractions without having to go outside. Although well-signed, it can be confusing to find one’s way between the 1,000 retailers and restaurants, as the Ville Souterraine was developed without a logical street grid.

Vieux-Montréal/Old Montreal Area
(between Station Square Victoria-OACI and Station Place-d’Armes, 15 minute walk)

Vieux-Montréal is one of North America’s oldest urban centers, with a unique European flair. Cobblestone streets run through a blend of French Ancient Regime and British Colonial architecture, lined with restaurants, high-end boutiques and antique stores, churches, galleries and museums, as well as recreational spaces near the waterfront. Rue St. Jacques, rue Notre Dame, rue St. Paul, and rue de la Commune are the main thoroughfares of the area, Montreal’s most popular tourist attraction. But it’s also worth exploring the many romantic side streets of Vieux-Montréal, which stretches from rue St. Antoine to the north, rue Berri to the east, rue McGill to the west, and the St. Lawrence River to the south.

Little Burgundy (Station Lionel-Groulx, 15 to 20 minute walk)

Just west of Ville Marie sits Little Burgundy, a small enclave of chic cafés, high-end restaurants, and pricey boutiques. The small but increasingly popular district stretches from Atwater Market to Mountain Street and is delineated by the Lachine Canal to the south and Saint-Antoine to the north. Since the reopening of the Lachine Canal in 2002, city strollers come to Little Burgundy to enjoy a walk through a mix of old industrial buildings and new high-rises, followed by a meal and drink on the district’s main artery, Notre Dame West. Once the heart and soul of Montreal’s jazz scene, Little Burgundy is still one of Montreal’s best places to enjoy music, including everything from singer-songwriters in a pub to the eclectic line-up featured at the historic Corona Theatre.

NEIGHBORHOODS & RESTAURANTS WORTH A CAB OR METRO RIDE

Le Village Gai/Gay Village (Between Station Beaudry and Station Papineau)

Just a 10-minute walk east of Ville Marie’s core lies one of North America’s largest gay villages between Beaudry and Papineau metro stations, with rue Sherbrooke to the north and boulevard Rene Levesque to the south. Since 1980, le village has been the social, political, and cultural center of Montreal’s LGBT community. Rue St. Catherine and rue Amherst are the best places to find an eclectic mix of clubs, bars, saunas, strip clubs, and cabarets, as well as cafés, boutiques, antique shops, and galleries. That said, the city’s large and diverse queer community has spread throughout the city from Ville Marie’s university districts to the hip and trendy Mile End in Montreal’s north.

Le Plateau (Between Station Sherbrooke and Station Mont-Royal, thirty- to fifty-minute walk)

In the Plateau you will find the very best of art, music, fashion, dining, and nightlife the city has to offer. Bound by rue Sherbrooke to the south, boulevard St. Joseph to the north, rue Papineau to the east, and St. Laurent to the west, the Plateau is the city’s most picturesque and lively district. A heterogeneous crowd of artists, students, yuppies, and young families populate the narrow tree-lined streets and colorful Victorian houses of the former working-class neighborhood. Although the Plateau has been increasingly gentrified, its main arteries—boulevard St. Laurent, rue St. Denis, and avenue du Mont-Royal—still ooze with the bohemian flair that made them famous. Places to recover from a shopping tour, culinary escapades, and a long night out in town are Parc Lafontaine on the east, or Mont-Royal on the west of the Plateau.

Mile End (Station Laurier)

Sandwiched between the Plateau and Little Italy, the Mile End stretches from boulevard St. Joseph north to rue Van Horne, and from avenue du Parc to boulevard St. Laurent. Canada’s “hipster capital” has been praised in Spin, Pitchfork, and the New York Times for its cultural diversity, indie music scene, vintage shops, and bookstores, as well as affordable cuisines from all over the world. Despite Mile End’s fast transformation from working-class enclave to trendsetting hub in the last decade, the district has been able to preserve much of its specific character. Don’t miss grabbing a fresh, hot bagel or mingling with the district’s Jewish, Greek, and Italian communities, as well as Montreal’s up-and-coming creative and techy-types.

Truly Montreal

They say you can’t leave Montreal without trying our famous poutine (french fries topped with cheese and gravy), excellent (un-New York!) bagels, and local beers (check the Nightlife section for a selection of local microbreweries.) Plus, March is the month when farmers start to collect maple syrup and the Cabanes à Sucre (Sugar Shacks) pop up around the city offering traditional recipes from Quebec, many making use of local/regional maple products. If you have the time, it is worth traveling outside of the city to visit one. As you will probably be busy with the conference, all of our “truly Montreal” listings are centrally located.

LIFE’S NECESSITIES

Internet access: In Montreal you won’t have any problem finding free Wi-Fi hotspots, which are available in most cafés and restaurants. “ Île sans Fils” (“wireless island”) stickers on the windows of cafés indicate a free Wi-Fi hotspot. If you are looking for a convenience store, just remember that here we call them “depanneurs.” There are several in the hotel area where you will find a little bit of everything, including beer and wine, which are also available in supermarkets. If you are looking for higher quality elixirs, you will have to go to the shops run by the Société des alcools du Québec (SAQ), one of which is conveniently located in the train station beneath the hotel.

INSTRUCTIONS
FOR PANEL AND WORKSHOP CHAIRS

1. Please keep panel presentations to 20 minutes and workshop presentations to no more than 10 minutes. Panels with more than 3 presenters will need to reduce presentation times to fit the 105-minute sessions.
   - When one panelist goes over time, other panelists or workshop participants are deprived of a fair opportunity to present their research/comments.
   - Audience members are rightfully upset when there is no time to ask questions.

2. Papers should be no longer than 8 double-spaced pages for a 20-minute talk, and fewer pages if there are clips. If your panelists have more than this, ask them to edit down in advance.

3. Technology problems cut into panel times. Please have panelists check their technology (DVDs, laptops, flash drives) in advance.

4. Please check that all visuals and audio are functional before your session begins.

5. All papers must be presented in person by the author. Skype or other teleconference presentations are not allowed at SCMS conferences.

6. Chairs should give their panelists signals for 5 minutes left, 2 minutes left, and “please wrap up” at the 20-minute mark.

7. Chairs who are presenting papers should designate one of the panelists to time their paper when they are presenting.

8. Please end your panel or workshop promptly at 15 minutes before the hour to allow participants and audience members enough time to get to the next panel or workshop.

SPECIAL EVENT

Friday

MARCH 27  🍁  9:00 – 9:30 PM

Satosphere
360-Degree Spherical Screen with 157 Speakers

LOCATION: SOCIÉTÉ DES ARTS ET TECHNOLOGIES, 1201 Boulevard Saint Laurent, 3rd floor

Please refer to Montreal vicinity map on page 32 for location.

Channeling the techno-utopianism of Expo 67, the Satosphere Dome is a state-sponsored, permanent environment dedicated to large-scale moving image and sound experimentation. With a screen that is eighteen meters in diameter (that’s 60 feet!), you can sit back—or literally lie down—on the couches and ponder a distinct mode of spectatorship, immersion, and art. An experience of audio-visual envelopment not to be missed!

Metro: St Laurent

DIRECTIONS: from conference hotel—a 15 minute walk from the hotel.
Walk east on René-Lévesque and turn left (north) onto Boulevard Saint Laurent.

SPONSOR: Concordia University

33rd International Festival of Films on Art (FIFA)

The International Festival of Films on Art’s principal activity is the organization of a competitive festival each spring, which presents over the span of eleven days the world’s finest film productions on art and media arts. The largest event of its kind in the world, the FIFA has become a leader on the international cultural scene with a rich and distinctive program from around the world. With over 40,000 attendees, FIFA brings together artists, industry professionals, cultural actors, and the general public.

Festival events are held in many prestigious cultural venues around Montreal. These include the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts (139 rue Sherbrooke Ouest); Place des Arts (475 rue Sainte-Catherine Ouest); Canadian Center for Architecture (1920 rue Baile); Musée d’art contemporain de Montréal (185 rue Sainte-Catherine Ouest); Grande Bibliothèque (475 boulevard de Maisonneuve Est); Cinémathèque québécoise (335 boulevard de Maisonneuve Est); and Concordia University (1400 boulevard de Maisonneuve Ouest).

The FIFA is proud to provide an exclusive special offer to the members of the SCMS for the 33rd Annual International Festival of Films on Art (FIFA). Members will benefit from a $2 rebate with the purchase of an adult ticket for the public screenings (excluding screenings at Société des Arts Technologiques) upon presentation of their SCMS badges. Tickets are available for the price of $10.50 CAD instead of $12.50 CAD at Place des Arts Box Office Ticket Counter (175 rue Sainte-Catherine Ouest) or at venues one hour before each screening. The program and schedule can be found at www.artfifa.com.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25 – SATURDAY, MARCH 28

5th International Market of Films on Art (MIFA)

Created by the International Festival of Films on Art (FIFA) in 2011, the International Market of Films on Art (MIFA) is a unique annual event held in the cosmopolitan city of Montreal. Each year, the MIFA invites professionals, artists, and specialists in films on art and media arts, as well as cultural institutions from around the world, to participate in the wide array of professional activities and services it has to offer. The MIFA aims to be a top-ranking international platform for the development and influence of films on art and media arts within the industry. It is an exceptional opportunity for skilled professionals and emerging artists to share, to show their work, to expand their network, and to materialize their projects. Participants can expect to find conferences, workshops, market development and networking activities, as well as several customized services.

New Cuban Geographies of Citizenship

LOCATION McENTEE READING ROOM, H 1001.01 (10th floor of Henry F. Hall building)
Concordia Campus, downtown, 1455 boulevard de Maisonneuve Ouest

This screening event of contemporary Cuban films, made by young filmmakers in the diaspora, is held in connection with the multi-sited archival/curatorial project “Roots and routes: Cuban diasporic cinemas of the 21st century.”

For a young generation of Cuban filmmakers in the diaspora, non-fiction modes of filmmaking are shedding light on the question of remapping current Cuban audiovisual production. The local/global networks developed both at home and abroad by these cultural producers who share a common “structure of feeling” have had a central role in this emergence. Their work translates personal and collective experiences of postcolonial displacement into films that present new forms of understanding Cubanness today. Emotional geographies of citizenship are presented through the resistance of their diasporic cinemas made in multiple latitudes of the world. In their representations of the self in first-person films, they are giving space to experiences and subjectivities that are much larger than their own. Thus, rather than focusing on one particular identity, the work of the filmmakers included in this program draw attention to contexts in the Global North where multiple identities—diasporic, gendered, racialized—are defined, subverted, and rearticulated. This selection of reflexive, performative, and interventional short films features the work of diasporic Cuban filmmakers exposing northern geographies from different locations in the United States, England, Spain and Switzerland. Followed the screening, curator and filmmaker Heidi Hassan will lead a Q & A session.

8:30 – 10:30 PM
Another Repeating Island
Heidi Hassan’s First-person Cinema of We
LOCATION YORK AUDITORIUM, EV 1.615 Concordia Campus, downtown, 1515 rue Sainte-Catherine Ouest
This screening event of contemporary Cuban films, made by young filmmakers in the diaspora, is held in connection with the multi-sited archival/curatorial project “Roots and routes: Cuban diasporic cinemas of the 21st century.”

Heidi Hassan is a fundamental figure in the current panorama of Cuban cinemas in the diaspora. Hassan’s experiences as a racialized female migrant filmmaker resonate with those of diasporic citizens around the globe, and specifically with those of Latin American and Latino/a communities. Most of Hassan’s affective filmmaking consists of personal self-reflexive documentaries that she narrates and stars in. Her politics of self-inscription underwent an apparent transformation in her first documentary feature Otra Isla (Another Island, 2014), as she documents the lives of a family of Cubans living in a state of double homelessness, both unable to return to the homeland they have left as political refugees and living now on the streets of their hostland, Spain. An extraordinary piece in its own right, the textual and aesthetic result of the documentary is as relevant as the inspiring and challenging process of its making. Visceral and suggestive, political and gendered, Otra Isla reflects on familial love, principles and responsibilities, as well as on the failures of nation-states’ policies and their citizens’ constant search for place and enfranchisement. Q & A with Hassan follows.

THIRD ANNUAL
SCMS Undergraduate Conference
April 24-25, 2015 • Northampton, MA

Hosted by Smith College

The Society for Cinema and Media Studies is proud to announce its support for the Society for Cinema and Media Studies Undergraduate Conference. Previously conducted under the title of the Midwest Undergraduate Film and Television Conference and held only at the University of Notre Dame, this new incarnation will rotate across multiple universities on an annual basis, so as to enable wider access to students across North America. It will carry the SCMS imprimatur to reflect the organization’s strong support for undergraduate education in cinema and media studies.

The SCMS Undergraduate Conference offers undergraduate students a forum to present papers representing their best work in the field. Each year, a panel comprised of faculty from the host institution selects the best papers from the proposals received. In 2015, the panel will be composed from Five College Consortium faculty (Amherst, Hampshire, Mount Holyoke and Smith Colleges, and the University of Massachusetts-Amherst). The resulting conference allows undergraduate students the rare opportunity to share their cinema and media history, criticism, and theory work with peers from across the country.

We ask that you tell your undergraduate students about the conference. As mentioned, this year it will be held at the Smith College on April 24 and 25, 2015. The 2016 Conference will be hosted University of Colorado, Boulder. More information about next year’s conference will be available on the SCMS website in the fall.

Questions about the 2015 conference should be directed to
Dr. Alexandra Keller, at Smith College (akeller@smith.edu)

Film + Photography Preservation and Collections Management
MA

FUELED BY THE dramatic changes taking place in the image-making world with the growth of digital technologies, our master of arts (MA) program in Photographic Preservation and Collections Management has added a new stream in film preservation, the first of its kind in Canada. We are now F+PPCM.

Like PPCM’s, the F+PPCM’s curriculum is unique. Both are delivered by a range of specialists including preservationists, historians of photography and film, and library and archival professionals. Both include a national or international internship and residency to prepare graduates to meet the challenges faced by institutions and organizations that strive to manage, maintain and develop object- and digital-based collections.

SCREEN BODIES
Editor: Brian Bergen-Aurand, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore

Screen Bodies is a peer-reviewed journal focusing on the intersection of Screen Studies and Body Studies across disciplines, institutions, and media. It is a forum promoting the discussion of research and practices through articles, reviews, and interviews that investigate various aspects of embodiment on and in front of screens.

The journal considers moving and still images, whether as entertainment or for information through cinema, television, and the Internet; through the private experiences of portable and personal devices; or in institutional settings such as medical and surveillance imaging. Screen Bodies considers the portrayal, function, and reception of the body presented and conceptualized through the lenses of gender and sexuality, feminism and masculinity, trans* studies, queer theory, critical race theory, cyborg studies, and dis/ability studies.

The Journal for Movies and Mind
Editor: Stephen Prince, Virginia Tech
Associate Editors: Carl Plantinga, Calvin College, and Todd Berliner, University of North Carolina Wilmington

Published in association with the Society for Cognitive Studies of the Moving Image

Projections: The Journal for Movies and Mind is an interdisciplinary, peer-reviewed journal that explores the way in which the mind experiences, understands, and interprets the audio-visual and narrative structures of cinema and other visual media. Recognizing cinema as an art form, the journal aims to integrate established traditions of analyzing media aesthetics with current research into perception, cognition and emotion, according to frameworks supplied by psychology, psychoanalysis, and the cognitive and neurosciences.

Congratulations to Michael Cowan for the 2015 Katherine Singer Kovács Award for Best Essay Published in a Journal, for the essay “Absolute Advertising: Walter Ruttmann and the Weimar Advertising Film”, Cinema Journal 52.4 (2013), 49-73.

Over the last three years, members of the Department of Film Studies at The University of St Andrews have been honored three times with SCMS awards.

- Brian Jacobson was awarded the 2013 SCMS Dissertation Award for Studios Before the System: Architecture, Technology, and Early Cinema.

- Joshua Yumibe received Honorable Mention for the SCMS First Book Award in 2013 for Moving Color: Early Film, Mass Culture, Modernism (Rutgers University Press, 2012).

The Department wishes to thank the SCMS Executive Council and the members of the Committees who have made these awards such a vital part of the Film and Media Studies scholarly culture.

PhD DEGREE IN FILM STUDIES

Earn an interdisciplinary PhD in Film Studies in conjunction with work in one of five associated departments (English, French and Italian, Hispanic, History of Art and Architecture, and Slavic).

Students will graduate having dual expertise in film/media studies as well as in a related field without any anticipated increase in the usual time to complete a degree.

The University of Pittsburgh has been a leader in film studies research for decades and is located in a dynamic city with a vibrant cinema and arts culture. The program offers cutting-edge courses; close mentoring; a graduate student organization that hosts its own annual conference; and a stimulating array of lectures, screenings, and special events.

“There are no goodbyes for us. Wherever you are, you will always be in my heart.”
-Mahatma Gandhi-

During the journey of our lives, we occasionally meet someone exceptional. You are one of those people! Working with you was always such a pleasure - you have a thoughtful, steady approach to solving problems large or small. Thank you for your dedication, passion and attention to detail. Your kindness and hard work has been greatly appreciated, and over the years you've made a tremendous difference to SCMS.

You will be greatly missed. Your well-earned departure leaves a void for those of us who have been lucky enough to work with you during the last 16 years.

Congratulations on your retirement. We wish you wonderful times ahead - you certainly deserve it.

With much love

Call for Paper, Panel, and Workshop Proposals

The Society for Cinema and Media Studies announces its call for proposals for the 2016 conference.

Please join us Wednesday, March 30 – Sunday, April 3, 2016 at the Hilton Atlanta.

In Atlanta, fine dining, shopping and rich history combine with inspiration-inducing attractions to create a city with Southern charm and world-class sophistication. It’s easy to see why Atlanta, Georgia is one of the most popular destinations in the Southeast to live and to visit. Atlanta is the primary transportation hub of the Southeastern United States, via highway, railroad, and air, with Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport being the world’s busiest airport for the 15th straight year. Atlanta is home to Coca Cola, the Center for Civil and Human Rights, CNN, the world’s largest aquarium-Georgia Aquarium, the High Museum of Art, The Martin Luther King Jr. National Historic Site, and Centennial Olympic Park. Atlanta is also home to Emory University, Georgia State University, and the nation’s most prestigious historically Black colleges: Clark Atlanta University, Morehouse College, Morehouse School of Medicine, and Spelman College. Join us!

The 2016 SCMS Conference Program Committee welcomes quality paper, panel, and workshop proposals on any topic related to cinema and media studies. Proposal submission forms will be available through the SCMS website on June 1, 2015. The deadline for proposals is Friday, August 28, 2015 (5:00 PM Central Time).
