SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES!

This popular award winning program is designed to offer insight and advice about the judicial appointment process in California and to help increase the number of women and diverse candidates who seek to obtain appointment to the bench. The program has regularly featured Josh Groban, Governor Brown's Senior Advisor on judicial appointments, members of the State Bar Judicial Nominees Evaluation (JNE) Commission, and judges who offer their guidance and advice to successfully navigate the appointment process. This event draws attendees from across the state.
