This ten-year index of the journal, Ethnomusicology, covers volumes 51–60 (2007–16). I am grateful for the invaluable help I received in preparing this index from Gail Lowther, the incoming assistant editor, and Stephen Stuempfle, SEM’s Executive Director, both of whom appeared, like guardian angels, just in the nick of time.

The index follows the format of the previous indices, with a few small changes: initial definite and indefinite articles (“The,” “A,” and “An,”) have been relocated according to the Chicago Manual of Style conventions to allow for consistent alphabetical listing; subjects, including geographic areas, have been listed under Articles only when more than two or three subjects were related. Book reviews are listed under title, author(s), and reviewer; recording reviews are listed under title, recording engineer, and/or collector (if known), and reviewer; and film and media reviews can be found under title, producer/director (if known), and reviewer.

As always, it is my hope that this index will be of use to you in the years to come. Enjoy!

The next volume in the Common Threads series, Immigrant Identity and the Politics of Citizenship, is a joint effort with the Journal of American Ethnic History. Editor John Bukowczyk selected 14 articles that discuss the divisions and hierarchies that immigrants coming to the United States confront and how these immigrants shape and are shaped by the social and cultural worlds they enter here. Drawing on scholarship about ethnic groups from around the globe, the chapters illuminate the often fraught journey many migrants undertake from mistrusted “Other” to sometimes-welcomed citizen.
