Register for This Thursday’s IACP AdvanCE Webinar!

Pharmacy Compounding Law and Regulations:
Staying Current in a Changing World

Thursday, November 14, 2013
1:00–2:00 p.m. CST
(11:00 PT / 12:00 MT / 2:00 ET)

David G. Miller, RPh
IACP’s Executive Vice President & CEO

This one hour webinar is an in-depth presentation on federal and state legislative and regulatory issues that are affecting compounders today. Attendees will learn how regulatory initiatives and court decisions have influenced the regulation of compounders, the authority of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) when inspecting compounding pharmacies, and up-to-date information on the current federal proposed legislation. Are YOU current on your compounding pharmacy law? Never assume. This is one hour you do not want to miss!

The American College of Apothecaries (ACA) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. The International Academy of Compounding Pharmacists’ programming is co-sponsored by the American College of Apothecaries. This program has been accredited for 1.0 contact hours (0.1 CEUs) of continuing education credit for pharmacists and technicians.

There’s still time to register for the November 18th & 26th 2013 Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA) Update - Live Training Webinar!

Are you a pharmacist providing immunizations or CLIA-waived testing services or a pharmacy technician assisting in these services? If you are at any risk for exposure to blood borne pathogens, you are required to have live OSHA training every year.

IACP in collaboration with the TPREF is offering an ACPE-accredited OSHA training webinar that meets all of OSHA’s training requirements! Visit http://bit.ly/1c9Ng2G or www.iacprx.org/IACPAdvanCE for more information on dates and times, and to register for this accredited webinar.
