MEMBER TESTIMONIALS

What Our Members Are Saying About the Benefits of Belonging

“I benefit from the experience of more ‘seasoned’ members. They have truly ‘been there and done that’, so if something comes up at work I can’t or don’t know how to handle, all I have to do is send an email or pick up the phone, and someone is there. The personal growth in leadership is a big benefit for me and my employer as well. With leadership you get that ‘emotional intelligence’. It is a very motivating organization for those just starting out, or just looking to always learn and improve.”
- Danielle Main CISR, CPIW

“As a graduate from Indiana State University’s IRM program, there is a lot of industry support for students. I first learned of IAIP by way of a scholarship offered to students. After entering the work force, I came into contact with some of the people I had worked with on scholarship drives, and upon joining my current employer I became a member after attending only one meeting. I’ve renewed my membership because of the great networking.”
- Kristen Strasser AAI, CRIS, CPIW

“The most significant benefit that I’ve experienced is the confidence I have gained in myself to take on challenges at work that others shy away from or avoid all together. I love that sense of accomplishment! Attending local meetings gives me a boost that energizes me for the month ahead and when I attend Council, Regional and International conferences it’s a huge lift to my spirit!”
- Robyn Railsback
