INTRODUCTION
How To Use This Index

This index continues the one published in 1983 for volumes one through forty-six, 1936-1982. It includes subjects, authors, and cases in one alphabetical arrangement. All signed articles plus selected additional ones are included. Alphabetical listings, by title, of articles dealing with particular subjects, followed by the authors' last names, the volumes, page numbers on which articles begin, and month (or quarter) and year of the Bench & Bar may be found by subject heading, as in the sample entry below:

LEGAL EDUCATION, CONTINUING
Kentucky Supreme Court adopts bridge-the-gap, by Clark 52:48 Fall '88

The article above, "Kentucky Supreme Court adopts bridge-the-gap," may be found in volume 52, page 48 of the Fall 1988 issue of the Bench & Bar. The same article may be found under the author, e.g.,

CLARK, JANIS E.

Subject headings are sometimes subdivided:

LEGAL ETHICS - OPINIONS
or
JUDGES - ELECTIONS

Subjects are cross referenced to related topics, or to topics used in the index from one which is not:

DAMAGES See also NEGLIGENCE
or GARNISHMENT See ATTACHMENT AND GARNISHMENT

Court cases are listed only if a substantial part of an article is devoted to them. They are incorporated in the alphabetical listing under CASES.

Portraits and photographs are indexed under names of persons or subjects and include cover portraits, authors of articles, Kentucky Bar Association presidents and counsel, Kentucky appellate court judges, and selected group photographs. Portraits of authors who are regular contributors are indexed only once.
