CALL FOR PAPERS

2015 ANNUAL MEETING OF
THE MEDIEVAL ACADEMY OF AMERICA

HOSTED BY

MARCH 12-14, 2015

The Program Committee invites proposals for papers on all topics and in all disciplines and periods of medieval studies. Any member of the Medieval Academy may submit a paper proposal, excepting those who presented papers at the annual meetings of the Medieval Academy in 2013 or 2014; others may submit proposals as well but must become members in order to present papers at the meeting. Special consideration can be given to individuals whose specialty would not normally involve membership in the Medieval Academy.

Location: The Medieval Institute has one of the preeminent library collections for medieval studies in North America, and the University of Notre Dame’s Snite Museum of Art will showcase an exhibit on the reconstruction of a 15th-century Breton Book of Hours by the Library’s Department of Special Collections. The campus Digital Visualization Theater will be used for a 360-degree visual and aural presentation on the cosmology of Hildegard of Bingen, while the University’s DeBartolo Performing Arts Center, with five venues for film, theater, and music, will offer meeting attendees the chance to enjoy a variety of performing arts activities. Notre Dame is located about two hours’ drive from Chicago, with commuter train service available. Scholars may wish to extend their visit and take advantage of the opportunity for research or sightseeing.

Theme: “Medieval Studies across the Disciplines” will provide a conceptual focus for the meeting. The Medieval Academy welcomes innovative sessions that cross traditional disciplinary boundaries or that use various disciplinary approaches to examine an individual topic. To both facilitate and emphasize interdisciplinarity, the Call for Papers is organized in “threads.” Sessions listed under these threads have been proposed to or by the Program Committee but the list provided below is not meant to be exhaustive or exclusive.
Proposals: Individuals may propose to offer a paper in one of the sessions below or propose a full panel of papers and speakers for a listed session or for a session they wish to create. Sessions usually consist of three 25-minute papers, and proposals should be geared to that length. The Program Committee may choose a different format for some sessions after the proposals have been reviewed. Session organizers may wish to propose different formats for their sessions, subject to Program Committee approval.

In order to be considered, proposals must be complete and include the following:

1. A cover sheet containing the proposer’s name, statement of Medieval Academy membership (or statement that the individual’s specialty would not normally involve membership in the Academy), professional status, email address, postal address, home or cell and office telephone numbers, fax number (if available), and paper title;

2. A second sheet containing the proposer’s name, session for which the paper should be considered, paper title, 250-word abstract, and audio-visual equipment requirements. If the proposer will be at a different address when decisions are announced in September 2014, that address should be included.

3. Additional sheets as necessary containing all of the above information when a full panel for a session is bring proposed.

Submissions: Proposals should be submitted to the MAA Program Committee, preferably by email to MAA15@nd.edu, or on paper in two copies to:

Medieval Academy Program Committee
The Medieval Institute
715 Hesburgh Library
The University of Notre Dame
Notre Dame, IN 46556

The deadline is 15 June 2014.

Please do not send proposals to the Medieval Academy office or to the session organizers.

Selection Procedure: Paper and panel proposals will be reviewed for their quality, the significance of their topics, and their relevance to the conference threads. The Program Committee will evaluate proposals during the summer of 2014 and the Committee will inform all successful and unsuccessful proposers and announce the program in September of 2014.
