Re: General Counsel and Chief Legal Officers Urge Support of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association's 2015 Annual Convention

Dear Friend of NAPABA:

We, the undersigned General Counsel and Chief Legal Officers of companies throughout the United States, invite you to join the growing list of law firms that are supporting the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (NAPABA) and its 2015 Annual Convention. We proudly support NAPABA and its efforts to increase diversity and inclusion in the legal profession and we urge you to do the same.

As you may know, NAPABA is the national association of Asian Pacific American attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students and represents the interests of over 40,000 Asian Pacific American (APA) attorneys, judges, law professors, and law students in nearly 70 national, state, and local APA bar associations. The 2015 NAPABA Convention, themed "NAPABA Rising," will be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, on November 5-8, 2015, and is expected to attract more than 1,500 APA attorneys, including the General Counsel of Fortune 1000 Companies and many other General Counsel and in-house counsel, federal and state judges, and law professors from around the country. The Convention is also expected to bring together law students and undergraduates from around the country to attend specialty programming designed specifically for aspiring lawyers and those considering law school. The Convention will feature prominent speakers from both the private and public sectors. Notable past keynote speakers include: then-Senator Barack Obama, Vice President Al Gore, Supreme Court Justices Sandra Day O'Connor and Sonia Sotomayor, Senator Arlen Specter, Attorney General Janet Reno, Deputy Attorney General Larry Thompson, Microsoft Executive Vice President and General Counsel Brad Smith, Walmart International Senior Vice President and General Counsel Tim Cheatham, and, most recently, Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist and activist José Antonio Vargas.

The 2015 NAPABA Convention will be a unique opportunity for you to support diversity and inclusion, network with leaders of corporations, law firms, and government agencies, and join in the important work that NAPABA performs for Asian Pacific Americans in the legal profession. There are many ways your firm can support NAPABA. We ask you to consider sponsoring the Convention and to support the attendance of your Asian Pacific American partners and associates at the Convention. The attached brochure explains the various sponsorship opportunities available for the Convention. To become a sponsor or to discuss sponsorship opportunities, please contact NAPABA Meetings & Membership Manager, Priya Purandare at (202) 775-9555 or ppurandare@napaba.org.

We thank you for your past support and look forward to seeing you in New Orleans in November.

Sincerely,
