

AMERICAN BANKRUPTCY LAW JOURNAL/
NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF BANKRUPTCY JUDGES
FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

THE AMERICAN BANKRUPTCY LAW JOURNAL is seeking applications for ABLJ fellowships from full-time professors (not limited to law professors) with no current law firm affiliation whose teaching or research addresses insolvency issues. The fellowship supports attendance at the 2017 annual educational program of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges, scheduled for October 8 – 11, 2017 in Las Vegas, Nevada. Successful applicants will receive a waiver of the program registration fee and reimbursement of up to $1000 of documented and qualified expenses incurred in attending the program. Selection criteria include geographic diversity and a preference for untenured faculty.

Please send the completed application by June 23, 2017 to judge_jeffery_deller@pawb.uscourts.gov

Name: _____

Address: _____

Academic Title and Tenure Status: _____

Current Academic Affiliation: _____

Please list bankruptcy or insolvency courses (liberally defined) that you have taught in the last three years and the frequency with which you teach such courses:

Please describe your current research interests and how might attendance at the NCBJ annual educational program aid those interests?

If you practiced law prior to your teaching career or are currently associated with a legal practice, describe the nature and extent of your bankruptcy practice.

If your discipline is not law, please provide comparable information on your nonacademic involvement in bankruptcy or insolvency matters.

If you are awarded a fellowship, will you be able to attend the entire conference? _____

Please attach a list of your publications and any other portion of your curriculum vita that you think would aid us in understanding your interests in bankruptcy and insolvency. You may attach additional sheets. Thank you for your interest.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE BY JUNE 23, 2017

View NCBJ brochure and register at www.ncbj.org