

2014

NCOBPS

National Conference of Black Political Scientists
WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

FILM AGENDA

FREE PUBLIC EVENTS

Featuring

Roxanna Walker-Canton
Assistant Professor
Visual & Performing Arts
Fairfield University

Yasser Payne
Associate Professor
Black American Studies
University of Delaware

Nevline Nnaji
Independent Filmmaker
New York, NY

VIEWING HEADQUARTERS

1st Floor Amphitheater
University of Delaware
Downtown Center
13 East 8th Street
Wilmington, DE 19801

For more information: NCOBPS2012@gmail.com

SCHEDULE FRIDAY MARCH 14TH

LIVING THINKERS: AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF BLACK
WOMEN IN THE IVORY TOWER
11:00AM-12:15 PM

Roxanna Walker-Canton, MFA

An award-winning independent documentary-maker and video installation artist. She earned her B.A. from Spelman College in Atlanta. She is the director of The Living Thinkers.

Visit: vimeo.com/62421674

THE PEOPLE'S REPORT
2:15-3:30pm

Yasser Payne, PhD

An associate professor in the Department of Black American Studies at the University of Delaware. His street ethnographic research program is centered on exploring notions of resiliency with the streets of Black America using an unconventional methodological framework.

Visit: www.thepeoplesreport.com

REFLECTIONS UNHEARD: BLACK WOMEN IN CIVIL RIGHTS
3:45-5:00pm

Nevline Nnaji

The Producer/Director of Reflections Unheard: Black Women in Civil Rights. Her journey filmmaking first began with her YouTube videos, which focus on her personal stories and experiences as a queer woman of color.

Visit: reflectionsunheardfilm.com

www.NCOBPS.org