

Looking for opportunities to attend the NRPA Congress in Las Vegas? Here are some options.

Apply for the Jan Parker NRPA Congress Scholarship. This $750 scholarship can be used to assist with travel, lodging and other expenses. Deadline to apply is June 1.

http://www.ncrpa.net/resource/resmgr/Scholarship/Jan\_Parker\_NRPA\_Congress\_Sc.docx

Volunteer at Congress - <http://www.nrpa.org/Congress2015/volunteer/> Volunteer registration opens in early May.

Apply for a NRPA Congress Scholarships and Fellowships – deadline to apply is 5/11. Scholarships include: Diversity Scholarship, Student Scholarship and Young Professional Scholarship. All the details are available at <http://www.nrpa.org/scholarships/?NRPAHmCF>

The American Academy for Parks and Recreation Administration (AAPRA) is a supporter of NRPA; and about this time each year, seeks applications for the AAPRA Externship, which includes registration for NRPA Congress plus up to $1000 for expenses. You can find all the details and application online at <http://www.aapra.org/academy-externships>. May 15th is the deadline.

Registration for NRPA Congress will be online at 12pm ET on May 1st. (there is a promo where the 50th person to register get a free registration as part of their 50th Anniversary!). Need more reasons to attend NRPA Congress? Check out their blog that gives you 50 reasons to attend <http://www.nrpa.org/blog/50-reasons-to-attend-the-2015-nrpa-annual-conference/>

We hope to have final information about the NC housing block soon.