OREGON NURSES ASSOCIATION BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: TITLE, PURPOSES, FUNCTIONS, AND AFFILIATIONS

Section 1. The name of this Association is the Oregon Nurses Association, hereinafter referred to as ONA.

Section 2. ONA's purpose is to work for the improvement of health standards and the availability of health care services for all people, foster high standards of nursing, stimulate and promote the professional development of nurses, organize and represent the interests of RNs and advance their economic and general welfare.

These purposes will be unrestricted by considerations of age, color, creed, gender, disability, health status, sexual orientation, nationality, race or religion.

Section 3. ONA's functions are to:

- A. establish and promote standards of nursing practice, nursing education/and nursing services.
- B. promote adherence to the ANA Code of Ethics for Nurses.
- C. act and speak for the nursing profession in regard to legislation, governmental programs and health policies.
- D. promote and protect the economic and general welfare of nurses.
- E. conduct a collective bargaining program for nurses.
- F. provide for the professional development of nurses.
- G. represent nurses and serve as their state spokesperson with allied professional, community, and governmental groups and with the public.
- H. promote relationships with nursing students.
- I. stimulate and promote research in nursing, disseminate research findings and encourage the utilization of new knowledge as a basis for nursing.
- J. assume an active role as consumer advocate in health.
- K. develop and implement ongoing affirmative action programs within ONA and its constituent associations and special interest groups.
- L. maintain communications with constituents and members through official publications.

Section 4. Affiliations

- A. The ONA Board of Directors will undertake affiliations with other compatible organizations or affiliate with such organizations as the ONA Board determines necessary and appropriate to accomplish organizational goals and objectives.
- B. An affiliation agreement is defined as a legally binding contract that sets forth the terms and conditions under which ONA and another entity, such as another labor or professional organization, agree to affiliate or merge with each other or combine or share a significant amount of resources.

- C. The ONA Board of Directors' discretion to determine the terms and objectives of the affiliation is limited by the following:
1. The affiliation must be with an organization that has a mission, purpose and objective consistent with those of ONA as determined by the ONA Board and ratified by the House of Delegates.
 2. Organizations eligible for an affiliation include, but are not limited to the following: nursing students, nurses, other healthcare professional and health care worker associations and unions, health advocacy organizations, labor union federations and coalitions, and other organizations engaged in compatible social, professional, educational and economic activities.
 3. The affiliation agreement must be written and include criteria as established in adopted policies.
- D. The written affiliation agreement will be provided to the House of Delegates with the notice of the meeting of the House of Delegates. The House of Delegates must ratify the affiliation agreement before it takes effect.

The ONA Board of Directors and the House of Delegates prior to approving and ratifying an affiliation agreement must be provided specific explanations of organizational goals and objectives intended to be achieved or advanced by the affiliation, the impact of the affiliation on ONA's autonomy or its ability to maintain existing affiliations, and any other topic as established in adopted policies.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. ONA is composed of:

A. Members

1. nurses licensed to practice as a RN in at least one (1) state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia of the United States, and who do not have a license under revocation or under suspension from practice for professional misconduct in any jurisdiction; or
2. nurses in a retired RN status as defined by the applicable governmental accrediting or licensing agency.

- B. OSNA members who are enrolled in a nursing education program that qualifies the applicant to take the state recognized examination for RN licensure.

Section 2. Good Standing

A. An ONA member in good standing is one:

1. who currently resides in Oregon, or has resided in Oregon in the previous four (4) years, or maintains a residence in Oregon, or works as a RN for an employer in Oregon, or is represented by ONA for purposes of collective bargaining;
2. whose dues are not delinquent; and
3. who abides by these Bylaws and adopted policies.

Section 3. Membership Privileges and Responsibilities

Members in good standing, regardless of dues classification, will have the following membership privileges and responsibilities, except as otherwise stated in these Bylaws and adopted policies, or for special members as determined by the ONA Board of Directors:

A. Membership Privileges:

1. receive a membership card
2. vote
3. serve in any ONA elected or appointed position
4. serve as a delegate to ONA's House of Delegates
5. attend annual meetings, conventions, the House of Delegates and other unrestricted activities of ONA
6. receive regular ONA communications
7. nominate qualified candidates for elected positions
8. have representation through ONA to ANA and all rights of membership in ANA as provided in the ANA Bylaws until such time as two-thirds (2/3) of ONA members in good standing vote to disaffiliate from ANA
9. have representation through ANA in the ICN

B. Membership Responsibilities:

1. abide by the ethical and legal obligations of the profession
2. not engage in dual unionism, defined as providing resources or material support to, or becoming a member of, or forming a labor, professional, or political organization or organizing committee that competes with ONA for members or otherwise undermines the integrity of ONA or one of ONA's constituent associations or affiliates
3. refrain from dealing with ONA or affiliates as an adverse party or on behalf of an adverse party with the purpose of removing ONA or affiliate as or preventing ONA or affiliate from becoming the exclusive representative for a group of employees or undermining ONA or affiliate's standing as a professional association
4. honor an ONA sanctioned picket line except as provided under Article II.4.A.3
5. remain a member in good standing

C. Special members, as defined in adopted policies, will have the privileges in Article II.3.A.1, 5-9 and the responsibilities in Article II.3.B.1-5.

D. OSNA Member Privileges

1. All OSNA members in good standing will have all of the following privileges:
 - a. right to receive regular ONA communications.
 - b. attend regular meetings, conventions, the House of Delegates, and other unrestricted activities of ONA.
 - c. present action reports to the House of Delegates.
 - d. serve as a delegate to the House of Delegates and as such have the right to vote on action reports and resolutions.
 - e. receive credit as a member of ONA in good standing for each year of OSNA membership in good standing.

Section 4. Disciplinary Action and Appeal Procedure

A. Cause for disciplinary action against a member will be limited to:

1. violation of these Bylaws or adopted policies; and
2. other actions which are detrimental to the economic or professional purposes, goals, and functions of ONA, ANA and constituent members of ANA, affiliates or constituent associations.
3. Statutory supervisors, as defined by the applicable law(s), are exempt from disciplinary action by ONA for crossing an ONA sanctioned picket line to work during a strike or other concerted activity at his/her place of employment, if ordered to work by the employer.

B. Fair Treatment and Due Process

1. Each member subject to disciplinary action will have the right to fair treatment in the application of the law and ONA's Bylaws and adopted policies. In applying the rules and procedures relating to disciplinary action, the essential requirements of due process (notice, hearing, and judgment based upon the evidence) will be observed, without requiring the technical formality followed in courts of law.
2. The charge must set forth the provisions of these Bylaws or adopted policies allegedly violated and the acts which allegedly constitute such violation in sufficient detail to inform the accused of the offense.
3. Any charge based upon alleged misconduct which occurred more than three (3) years prior to the filing of such charge is barred and will be rejected.

C. Hearing Procedure

1. The Executive Committee will be the trier of fact and will timely convene a hearing to assess the merit of the charges. Those members of the Executive Committee that have a conflict of interest must recuse themselves from the hearing. If the remaining Executive Committee members do not form a quorum, the ONA Board of Directors will be the first body to serve as the trier of fact.
2. A two-thirds (2/3) vote is needed to find the charged party guilty. The trier of facts will issue a written decision that outlines the basis for its decision and provide the decision to the charged and charging parties.

D. Appeal

1. Only the accused has a right to appeal a decision to the entire ONA Board of Directors.
2. The ONA Board will hold a hearing during a regularly scheduled meeting, or special meeting called for that purpose, to review evidence and the trier of fact's decision and to afford the accused the opportunity to present an argument as to why the decision is wrong. The ONA Board will not consider new evidence.
3. The decision of the ONA Board will be final and binding.

E. Depending on the severity of the matter, the following disciplinary actions may be imposed: reprimand, censure, fine, removal from office, suspended from membership, or permanently expelled from membership.

F. A member will be dropped from the membership rolls if such member fails or it is found that the member has failed to pay dues in the amount and within such time period as established by ONA adopted policies. No membership privileges will be withheld if dues are paid within the month the dues are owed. A member seeking reinstatement may be required to pay all back dues plus a reinstatement fee equivalent of three (3) months dues. An exception to this would be arrears due to a layoff, serious illness, or any other special circumstance, such as a strike, which could be appealed to the Executive Committee.

G. Any disciplinary action taken by ANA, constituent member of ANA, or affiliate against one of its members, or against a member of ONA, may be reviewed by the ONA Board of Directors and treated as an appeal.

ARTICLE III: DUES & FEES

Section 1. Dues and Fees

- A. The annual dues for a member of ONA for the membership year of twelve (12) consecutive months beginning the first month of membership will include:
1. the present rate of dues paid by ONA to the ANA will be in accordance with policies adopted by the ANA House of Delegates; and
 2. the annual ONA dues which will be calculated as follows:

- a. the average annual base wage after three (3) years of employment from the starting wage as a beginning staff nurse in ONA-represented facilities will be established as of April 1 each year. Beginning July 1, the annual dues will be one percent (1%) of that average base wage or the previous year's dues, whichever is the larger amount; and
 - b. two dollars ($2.00) per month will be deposited in the Oregon Nurse Political Action Committee (ON-PAC), or if made unlawful by any statute, current or future, to any other lawful fund that promotes political education or activities as designated by ONA, unless individual members elect to have the funds go into the General Fund; and
 - c. two dollars ($2.00) per month will be deposited in the Nurses United Political Action Committee (NU-PAC), or if made unlawful by any statute, current or future, to any other lawful fund that promotes political education or activities as designated by ONA, unless individual members elect to have the funds go into the General Fund; and
 - d. two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per month will be deposited in the Oregon Nurses Organizing Fund to promote internal and external organizing, and leadership development; and
3. the per capita dues or fees payable by virtue of ONA's affiliation to the AFL-CIO at the national and/or state level, if applicable.
 4. the per capita dues payable by virtue of ONA's affiliation to the NFN.
 5. any fees imposed by a constituent association pursuant to its bylaws and approved by the ONA Board of Directors or these Bylaws.
 6. any fees imposed by a bargaining unit ONA represents for purposes of collective bargaining pursuant to its bylaws and approved by the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare.
- B. Any changes in the rate of dues paid by ONA to the ANA or because of the ANA's affiliation with another organization will be automatically incorporated into annual dues.
- C. Members not represented by ONA for collective bargaining may pay dues equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the total sum of A(1), fifty percent (50%) of the total sum of A(2)(a), one hundred percent (100%) of the total sum of A(2)(b) and one hundred percent (100%) of the total sum of A(2)(c).
- D. Members who qualify for one of the following categories may elect to pay fifty percent (50%) of the annual dues equal to the sum of A(1), A(2), A(3), and A(4) unless they are represented by collective bargaining in which case members will pay one hundred percent (100%) of A(3) and A(4) and may elect to pay fifty percent (50%) of the annual dues equal to the sum of A(1) and A(2):
1. nurses who are not employed.
 2. RNs in full time study.
 3. nurses who work sixty-four (64) hours or less per month and whose status has been verified by the employer(s). A change of status will not occur more than one (1) time during the membership year.
 4. graduates of Advance Practice Nursing programs for a first year of membership if initiated within six (6) months following graduation.
- E. Permanently disabled members, members seventy (70) years of age or older or retired members as defined in Article II.1.A. 2 will pay a minimum of ten percent (10%) of the annual dues.

- F. Members who have fifty (50) years of continuous membership will become a life member and pay no dues thereafter.
- G. ONA dues paid by a demonstration project member will be established by the ONA Board of Directors. Demonstration projects that directly impact the dues of members represented for purposes of collective bargaining are approved by the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare.
- H. Graduates of a basic nursing program are entitled to a seventy-five (75%) discount the first year and a fifty percent (50%) discount the second year if membership in ONA is initiated within six (6) months after licensure and the graduate was an OSNA member of ONA prior to graduation.

Section 2. Change of Dues Category

No monies will be refunded or additional monies collected retroactively when a change of dues category is made within a membership year.

Section 3. Strike Fund

- A. An amount equivalent to two percent (2%) of ONA income by dues, except for those nurses who have made the indication provided for in Article III.3.B, will be set aside as a strike fund for represented nurses in ONA contract facilities and administered by the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare pursuant to its policies and procedures and in accordance with the law.
- B. Nurses not represented by ONA for purposes of collective bargaining may indicate on membership dues check and application that total dues are to be applied to all professional activities except Economic and General Welfare.

ARTICLE IV: HOUSE OF DELEGATES AND ANNUAL MEETING

Section 1. Definition

The House of Delegates will be the governing body of ONA and will be composed of:

- A. credentialed delegates selected by the members in good standing of the constituent associations;
- B. the ONA Board of Directors; and
- C. OSNA delegates.

Section 2. Functions

The House of Delegates will:

- A. take positions, determine policy, and set direction on substantive issues of a broad nature necessitating the authority and backing of the official voting body of ONA.
- B. adopt, amend and maintain these Bylaws.
- C. ratify affiliation agreements.
- D. perform all other duties stated in these Bylaws.

Section 3. Composition

A. Apportionment

1. The number of delegates to which any constituent association will be entitled at any annual meeting will be based on the number of members on November 30 of the preceding year.
2. There will be an additional six (6) delegates with limited voting rights allotted to OSNA members chosen pursuant to that association's bylaws and procedures.
3. The number of delegates to which any constituent association will be entitled at any special meeting of the House of Delegates, will be the number of delegates authorized at the immediate preceding regular meeting of the House of Delegates.
4. Each constituent association in good standing will be entitled to one (1) delegate plus one (1) delegate for every twenty-five (25) members or major fraction thereof.
5. Communication to the president and secretary of each constituent association will be sent with the total number of delegates allotted to that constituent association. This will be the notice of delegates.

B. Eligibility- Delegates must be credentialed prior to being seated at the House of Delegates.

C. Nominations and Elections

1. Upon a constituent association's receipt of the notice of delegates, the constituent association must provide its members in good standing, as verified by ONA, reasonable notice to nominate candidates to serve as delegates.
2. After receiving names of nominees and verifying they are eligible and willing to serve, the constituent association will hold an election by secret ballot with the nominee(s) receiving the highest number of votes being selected as delegates or, if the total number of nominees willing and eligible to serve is less than or equal to the total number of delegates allotted to the constituent association, then those nominees will be selected as delegates.
3. For purposes of this section only, a member in good standing is one who is in good standing as verified by ONA the month prior to the month the notice of delegates is sent.

D. Term and Vacancies

1. Terms of Office and Vacancies

 - 2. in violation of these Bylaws or adopted policies; or is
 - 3. fiscally malfeasant.
- B. The ONA Board of Directors will provide the member official notice of the suspension following the procedures outlined under Article II.4.B.2&3. The suspended official will be allowed to appeal such finding following the procedure under Article II.4.D. The ONA Board, by a two-thirds (2/3) secret ballot vote can decide to remove the member of the ONA Board at which time the position will be considered vacant.

ARTICLE VI: STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1. Definition

There will be standing committees of the House of Delegates which will assume such duties as are specified in these Bylaws and such other related duties as may be assigned. Standing committees will be accountable to the House of Delegates and submit reports to the ONA Board of Directors.

The standing committees will include:

- A. Bylaws
- B. Nominating
- C. Elections

Section 2. Composition

- A. Standing committees will consist of no fewer than three (3) and no more than seven (7) members in good standing with members serving until their respective successors are appointed, or if elected, until certified by the Elections Committee.
- B. The chairperson of a standing committee will be selected by the members of the committee.
- C. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, a member who is absent from two (2) consecutive committee meetings may be removed. The vacancy will be filled as provided in Article V.3.L.
- D. A majority of the members of any committee will constitute a quorum.

Section 3. Qualifications

Elected or appointed members to standing committees must meet the following requirements:

- A. Be an ONA member in good standing at the time of nomination or appointment and for two (2) years immediately preceding the call for nominations or appointment.
- B. An employee of ONA is eligible to be a candidate two (2) years after resignation from the staff position when candidacy is declared.

Section 4. The Committee on Bylaws will:

- A. be appointed by the ONA Board of Directors.
- B. suggest, receive and prepare proposed amendments to the ONA Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, report to the ONA Board of Directors and submit to the House of Delegates or general membership, when applicable, proposed action thereon.
- C. submit to the ONA secretary amendments proposed by the Committee on Bylaws for action by the House of Delegates. The secretary will append the proposed amendments to the call of the meeting of the House of Delegates.
- D. review the Articles of Incorporation and report its finding(s) to the ONA Board of Directors.
- E. review prior to the adoption a constituent association's Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation and proposed amendments to Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation to ensure compliance with these Bylaws and adopted policies and report the committee's finding to the ONA Board of Directors, whose decision will be final.
- F. interpret these Bylaws.

Section 5. The Nominating Committee will:

- A. consist of three (3) members elected by the members of ONA for a two (2) year term and two (2) members appointed by the ONA Board of Directors for a two (2) year term. No member will serve more than two (2) consecutive terms on the Nominating Committee.
- B. The duties of the Nominating Committee will be:
 - 1. To determine nominations for appointments, elections, and vacancies except for the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare, the Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations and any other union body.
 - 2. To perform the duties described in Article X, Nominations and Elections.

Section 6. Elections Committee

- A. Composition:
 - 1. The Elections Committee will be composed of five (5) members, three (3) that will be elected by the membership for a three (3) year term, and two (2) that will be appointed by the ONA Board of Directors for a two (2) year term.
 - 2. Elections Committee members may not be candidates for any other elected ONA position.
 - 3. The appointed committee members will be the ONA auditor or designee and a professional registered parliamentarian, neither may be a member of the ONA staff or an elected ONA leader.

- B. A quorum of the Elections Committee will be three (3) committee members and decisions made by majority vote.
- C. Responsibilities
1. The committee will consider all pre or post-election objections that are filed by a member in good standing in accordance with these Bylaws and adopted policies.
 2. The Elections Committee will investigate each objection and will:
 - a. convene a hearing on the objection within twenty (20) days of the receipt of the written objection at the ONA headquarters office.
 - b. determine the merits of the objection and, if found meritorious, determine the appropriate remedy up to and including holding a new election, barring a candidate from running for an elected position, or certifying the winner of an election.
 - c. provide a written decision to the ONA Board of Directors, the Nominating Committee, and the affected candidate(s) which sets forth the basis for the decision within twenty (20) days of the completion of the investigation and hearing.
 - d. conclude the hearing and certify the results no later than ninety (90) days after receipt of the objection.
 - e. at its discretion, hear related objections during the same hearing.
 3. The Elections Committee's decision may be appealed to the House of Delegates within ten (10) days after the Elections Committee concludes the hearing and certifies the results. The House of Delegates will consider timely appeals within ninety (90) days of the receipt of the appeal. The decision of the House of Delegates will be final and the Elections Committee will certify that decision as the official results for the election.
 4. While the election is contested, including during an appeal, the incumbent's term of office will continue.

ARTICLE VII: CABINETS

Section 1. Definition

A Cabinet is an organized deliberative body to which specific responsibilities are assigned by these Bylaws, or by the House of Delegates, or the ONA Board of Directors in conformance with these Bylaws. With the exception of the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare, Cabinets are accountable to the ONA Board and will report to the House of Delegates. The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare is accountable to the House of Delegates and will report to the ONA Board.

Section 2. Designation

ONA established Cabinets will be:

- A. Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare
- B. Cabinet on Education
- C. Cabinet on Health Policy
- D. Cabinet on Human Rights and Ethics
- E. Cabinet on Nursing Practice and Research

Section 3. Composition

The composition of the cabinets will be as follows, except where provided otherwise in these Bylaws:

- A. The Cabinet on Education will consist of seven (7) members, four (4) to be elected by the membership and three (3) to be appointed by the ONA Board of Directors, except where provided otherwise by these Bylaws.
- B. The Cabinet on Health Policy will consist of nine (9) members, five (5) to be elected by the membership and four (4) to be appointed by the ONA Board of Directors, except where provided otherwise by these Bylaws. One elected and one appointed position will be designated for advanced practice registered nurses.
- C. The Cabinet on Human Rights and Ethics will consist of five (5) members, three (3) to be elected by the membership and two (2) to be appointed by the ONA Board of Directors.
- D. The Cabinet on Nursing Practice and Research will consist of seven (7) members, four (4) to be elected by the membership and three (3) to be appointed by the ONA Board of Directors except where provided otherwise by these Bylaws.

Section 4. Term of Office

Terms of Cabinet members will be for a two (2) year term commencing July 1 of the year in which elections are held or later, following certification by the Elections Committee pursuant to these Bylaws and adopted policies, or until successors have been appointed or elected because of a vacancy. Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare members will be elected or appointed for a three (3) year term. Cabinet members will serve no more than two (2) consecutive terms. Appointment to fill an unexpired term will not constitute a “term” for the purpose of the Cabinet term of office consecutive term definition.

Section 5. Responsibilities

Each Cabinet will:

- A. evaluate trends, developments, and issues in the Cabinet’s area of responsibility.
- B. establish a plan of operation for carrying out its responsibilities.
- C. develop and adopt standards.
- D. recommend policies and positions to the ONA Board of Directors and the House of Delegates.
- E. provide for dissemination of information to constituent associations and others as approved by the ONA Board of Directors, except where provided otherwise by these Bylaws.
- F. maintain communication with other Cabinets and with special interest groups on matters of mutual concern.
- G. address and respond to concerns related to equal opportunity and human rights.
- H. The chair and vice-chair, if applicable, will be selected by the members of the Cabinet.

Section 6. Vacancies

- A. Unless there are extenuating circumstances, a Cabinet member who is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings of a Cabinet in a year may be removed.
- B. The vacancy will be filled as provided in Article V.3.L, except where provided otherwise by these Bylaws. Nominees may be submitted by constituent associations, ONA Cabinets, special interest groups and committees.

Section 7. Quorum

A majority of the members of any Cabinet will constitute a quorum.

Section 8. Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare

A. Composition

- 1. The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare will be representative of the private and public sectors.
- 2. In order to become eligible for election or appointment to this Cabinet, or to remain in office, a member must:
 - a. be in a bargaining unit represented by ONA and in good standing, and
 - b. be an ONA member in good standing at the time of nomination or appointment and for two (2) years immediately preceding the call for nomination or appointment, and
 - c. an employee of ONA is eligible after resignation from the staff position when candidacy is declared.

B. Responsibilities of the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare

The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare will:

- 1. provide for the adoption of the Labor Relations department's budget in coordination with the ONA Board of Directors.
- 2. have fiscal oversight responsibilities related to Labor Relations department and ONA's bargaining units consistent with applicable provisions of law and with these Bylaws, including the administration of the Local Bargaining Unit Grant and the Organizing, Strike, and Defense Funds.
- 3. provide for implementation of action and directives of the House of Delegates within prescribed statutory responsibilities.
- 4. establish policies and provide for the transaction of business and coordination of ONA activities limited to insulated labor relations activities of ONA.
- 5. establish standing and special labor relations sub-committees as necessary to implement its duties.
- 6. provide for the trusteeship of bargaining units, including a fair hearing process, in the same manner and for the same limited reasons set forth under Article VIII.5.A&B for the ONA Board of Directors' dissolution of a constituent association.
- 7. enact policies for the selection of delegates to union bodies, including the Oregon AFL-CIO convention and representatives to other union committees or councils, if applicable.
- 8. assume such other duties as may be provided elsewhere in these Bylaws and the House of Delegates

C. Elections

- 1. The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare positions will be numbered. The odd numbered positions will be elected; the even numbered positions will be appointed. The Cabinet will consist of seven (7) positions and one (1) appointed alternate

- position; Cabinet policy will determine the numbering of positions and the election and appointment cycle.
2. Only ONA members who are represented by ONA for purposes of collective bargaining will cast ballots in elections for the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare and the Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations.
 3. There will be a three (3) member Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations. The restrictions set forth above concerning eligibility for election to the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare, and for casting ballots in such elections will apply equally to members of this nominating committee. The election of the Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations will be for a three (3) year term or until successors have been appointed or elected. No person will serve more than two (2) consecutive terms on the Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations.
 4. The Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations will receive and review the Consent to Serve forms (refer to Article X. 2. A. 1-2) of nominees for each vacant elected position on the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare, the Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations, and other union bodies, if applicable.
 5. The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare will enact policies for the selection of delegates to union bodies, such as the Oregon AFL-CIO Convention, if applicable.
 6. The Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare will be authorized to appoint a member to fill a vacancy on the Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare, the Committee on Economic and General Welfare Nominations, and delegates to other union bodies and committees. A member appointed to fill a Cabinet vacancy will serve for the remainder of the term of that position.

ARTICLE VIII: CONSTITUENT ASSOCIATIONS

Section 1. Definition

- A. An active CA exists where current CA members meet as a group at least semi-annually, one of which may be attendance at the House of Delegates, and complies with Section 3 of this Article.
- B. Where there is no active CA, the following may be become constituent associations:
 1. ONA collective-bargaining units as defined by the recognition clauses in the collective bargaining agreements; or
 2. Special interest groups; or
 3. All members designated "at-large" will be considered one (1) constituent association.
- C. A member will belong to only one (1) constituent association for all matters related to the House of Delegates.

Section 2. Formation, alteration, or voluntary dissolution of a constituent association

- A. Members wanting to alter an active CA will present to the ONA Board of Directors an official petition with the signatures of at least seven percent (7%) of the affected members in good standing. Changes in established boundaries common to two (2) or more active CAs will require separate petitions from each CA. The ONA Board will decide the alteration of an active CA by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.
- B. Where there is no active CA the ONA Board of Directors will designate as a constituent association an ONA collective-bargaining unit after receiving an official petition with the signatures of at least seven percent (7%) of the members in good standing in the bargaining unit or a unanimous written request by the bargaining unit's executive team. All members of the bargaining unit will then become a member of the bargaining unit's constituent association for all matters related to the House of Delegates.

- C. Members wanting to form or alter a special interest group will present to the ONA Board of Directors an official petition with the signatures of at least seven percent (7%) of the affected members in good standing. Changes that might infringe upon existing special interest groups will require separate petitions from each special interest group. Members wanting to dissolve a special interest group need to collect the signatures of at least thirty percent (30%) of the affected members in good standing. The ONA Board will decide the formation, alteration, or dissolution of a special interest group by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.
- D. Signatures for the petitions must be collected within one-hundred and twenty (120) days of sending the official petition form. The basis for the percentage threshold will be the number of members in good standing on the date the request for the official petition form is processed.
- E. The ONA Board of Directors will verify petition signatures against signatures on a member's application form.
- F. The ONA Board of Directors will not take action on any petitions received within the thirty (30) days prior to the notice of delegates through the conclusion of the corresponding House of Delegates.
- G. The ONA Board of Directors has the discretion to limit a group that wants to form, alter, or dissolve a constituent association to one (1) petition per year.
- H. Members that do not belong to one of the three (3) types of constituent associations above or are part of a constituent association that has been dissolved will automatically be placed in the At-Large Constituent Association.

Section 3. Responsibilities

Constituent associations must:

- A. Adopt and maintain Bylaws that are consistent with these Bylaws and adopted policies. These Bylaws and adopted policies will supersede any inconsistent Bylaws or policies of a constituent association.
- B. Comply with and carry out the responsibilities listed in these Bylaws, adopted policies and governing documents.
- C. Elect officers by secret ballot from its members in good standing.
- D. Select a delegation to the House of Delegates.
- E. Provide specific responsibility and accountability to the membership and the ONA Board of Directors for program activities to assist and support member mobilization and involvement at all levels of the organization.
- F. Provide organizational structure to enable free-flowing communications between members, the ONA Board of Directors and ONA Cabinets and Committees.
- G. Prior to ONA elections, submit to the ONA Nominations Committee, upon request, names of qualified potential candidates for ONA elective positions.
- H. Enter into and abide by written agreements requested by the ONA Board of Directors.

- I. Submit to the ONA Board of Directors copies of all governing body and committee minutes, financial reports and communications and such reports as may be required by these Bylaws, adopted policies, and/or governing documents, or as requested by the ONA Board.
- J. Submit a report to the House of Delegates.

Section 4. Good Standing

A constituent association will be in good standing upon compliance with Section 3 of this Article.

Section 5. Involuntary Dissolution

- A. The ONA Board of Directors by a two-thirds (2/3) vote may dissolve a constituent association for the following reasons:
 - 1. because of corruption or financial malpractice including difficulties such as insolvency, a failure of the constituent association to maintain proper financial records, or a use of funds for improper or personal purposes; or
 - 2. because of a failure of the constituent association to meet its obligations under its bylaws and these Bylaws and adopted policies or officers that fail to administer existing agreements properly, or a constituent association that regularly fails to provide an adequate delegation to the House of Delegates; or
 - 3. to restore democratic procedures, such as, remedying improper election procedures, or coercion of rank and file members by officers; or
 - 4. to carry out other legitimate objectives of ONA, such as:
 - a. merge a constituent association with another if one cannot function autonomously for reasons such as a significant reduction in a constituent association's membership or an unexpected loss of leadership;
 - b. correct administrative mismanagement, including a constituent association's failure to carry out ONA's adopted policies;
 - c. eliminate discrimination and unequal treatment because of age, color, creed, gender, disability, health status, sexual orientation, nationality, race, or religion;
 - d. prevent the destruction of an existing bargaining unit and preserve the status of a certified bargaining representative; and
 - e. prevent disaffiliation when the disaffiliation would have a detrimental impact upon collective bargaining.
- B. Prior to dissolving a constituent association and pursuant to adopted policies, the ONA Board of Directors will provide a hearing, including notice of the charges and an opportunity for the constituent association to oppose the imposition of the dissolution. The need for a hearing prior to the dissolution of a constituent association is not necessary where there is an emergency. In such cases, the hearing will occur within a reasonable time thereafter.
- C. Members of a dissolved constituent association will automatically be placed in the At-Large Constituent Association and may participate in ONA pursuant to that constituent association's Bylaws or procedures. Members of the dissolved constituent association that were elected as delegates prior to the dissolution and pursuant to a secret ballot election in which all the members in good standing of the dissolved constituent association were eligible to participate can be allowed to be seated as delegates for the At-Large Constituent Association.
- D. Funds from a dissolved constituent association will be put into ONA's General Fund and allocated pursuant to adopted policies.

Section 6. Reinstatement

A constituent association which has been involuntarily dissolved may be reinstated by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the ONA Board of Directors upon providing sufficient evidence that the constituent association complies with the requirements stated in these Bylaws and adopted policies and has corrected the condition(s) which resulted in its dissolution.

The ONA Board will review the status of any dissolved constituent association seeking reinstatement at each of its scheduled meetings.

Section 7. At-Large Constituent Association

The ONA Board of Directors will serve as the Executive Committee by default for the At-Large Constituent Association and will be responsible for such things as conducting the nominations and elections of delegates, filling any vacancies in the delegation, and administering and allocating funds for delegate expenses.

ARTICLE IX: SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Section 1.

Special interest groups may be authorized by the ONA Board of Directors pursuant to adopted policies to effect improvement in a special area of nursing practice or to consider a problem of mutual concern. All members of the special interest group will be members of ONA.

Section 2.

Special interest groups will report to the ONA Board and to the House of Delegates.

Section 3.

A special interest group will notify the ONA Board of its dissolution when there is no need to continue or will be dissolved by the ONA Board when the lack of reports to the ONA Board indicates a lack of activity.

ARTICLE X: NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Nominations for Elected Positions

- A. The Nominating Committee will request names of candidates for ONA elective positions from Cabinets, bargaining unit executive committees, constituent associations, other ONA structural units and the membership at-large.
- B. After verifying that a nominee is in good standing, the Nominating Committee will provide a Consent to Serve to the nominee.
- C. A member in good standing may self-announce for an elective position by submitting to the Nominating Committee the Consent to Serve. The Nominating Committee must receive the Consent to Serve no later than sixty (60) days prior to the close of the election.
- D. Members in good standing will be eligible to serve in only one (1) elective office or Cabinet or appointed position in ONA at any one (1) time except for ANA delegate or delegate to other union bodies and committees and where provided otherwise by these Bylaws. When an officer, director, or cabinet member accepts nomination for a different elective position, resignation from a current office will be effective after results for the different elective position are certified by the Elections Committee pursuant to these Bylaws and adopted policies.

- E. All nominees for president and vice-president will concurrently run as an ANA delegate.

Section 2. Requirements of the Nominees

- A. Nominees for Nominating Committee, Elections Committee, ANA delegate positions, Board and/or cabinets (except for Cabinet on Economic and General Welfare) will provide the Nominations Committee a completed Consent to Serve which will include:
 - 1. the nominee's resume detailing work history as an RN and length of time as an ONA member in good standing.
 - 2. a signed affirmation that the nominee:
 - a. has been, is currently, and will remain a member in good standing;
 - b. has not received and will not take anything of value from an employer or labor organization to promote the nominee's candidacy;
 - c. has not been convicted of certain crimes as defined by section 504(a) of the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (LMRDA);
 - d. is not and will not engage in dual unionism and has and will refrain from dealing with ONA or affiliates as an adverse party or on behalf of an adverse party as defined in Articles II.3.B.2-3; and
 - e. has met other requirements as stated in these Bylaws and ONA's adopted policies.
- B. Failure of a nominee to provide a completed Consent to Serve by the deadline will result in the Nominating Committee excluding a nominee from the ballot. The Nominating Committee will timely provide the nominee written notice of its reasons for excluding the nominee from the ballot. The Nominating Committee's exclusion may be appealed to the Elections Committee.

Section 3. Slate of Candidates

- A. The Nominating Committee will verify the information on all Consents to Serve received by the deadline and that the nominee is qualified to serve in the desired position.
- B. The Nominating Committee will create a slate with all qualified candidates.
- C. A copy of the slate will be published at least thirty (30) days prior to the close of elections.

Section 4. Elections

- A. The Nominations Committee will send all members the notice of election at the member's last known home address at least thirty (30) days prior to the close of the election. The notice of election must specify the date, time, and place of the election as well as the offices to be filled.
- B. Elections will be by mail or electronic ballot. The Credentials Committee will verify eligibility of all voters.
- C. All members in good standing will be eligible to vote except where provided otherwise by these Bylaws.
- D. The ONA Board of Directors will select tellers to conduct the election and provide safeguards for the conduct of the election. Voting will be by secret ballot. There will be no proxy voting.

- E. When mail ballots are utilized, ballots will be mailed to all members in good standing thirty (30) days prior to the close of elections. Members joining after the thirty (30) day limit may request a ballot in writing. Ballots must be received by noon at the close of the election.
- F. A plurality vote will constitute an election. In case of a tie, the choice will be made by lot.

Section 5. Certification of Results

- A. Candidates will be informed of the unofficial results of the election three (3) business days after the vote count ends.
- B. The Elections Committee must certify the results of the election ten (10) business days after the vote count ends if no written objection is received or, if a written objection is received, after the conclusion of the procedure under Article VI.6.C.

Section 6. Term

The terms of office will begin July 1 of the election year or after certified by the Elections Committee pursuant to these Bylaws and adopted policies, or in the case of ANA delegates at the adjournment of ONA House of Delegates.

Section 7.

Nomination and election policies and procedures will be determined by the ONA Board of Directors and will be consistent for all ONA structural units.

ARTICLE XI: OREGON NURSE

The Oregon Nurse will be the official publication of ONA and will be sent to all members upon payment of dues.

ARTICLE XII: LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

To the fullest extent permitted by the Oregon Non-Profit Corporation Act, no director or officer of ONA will be liable to ONA or its members for monetary damages for conduct as a director or officer. Any amendment to or repeal of this provision or to the Act will not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or officer of ONA for, or with respect to, any acts or omissions of such director or officer occurring prior to such amendment or repeal. No change in the Act will reduce or eliminate the rights and protection set forth in this section unless the change in the law specifically requires such reduction or elimination.

ARTICLE XIII: INDEMNIFICATION

ONA may indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any person who is made or threatened to be made a party to, witness in, or otherwise involved in, any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative, or otherwise (including an action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of ONA) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of ONA or any of its subsidiaries, or a fiduciary within the meaning of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 with respect to any employee benefit plan of ONA or any of its subsidiaries, or served at the request of ONA as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent or as a fiduciary of any employee benefit plan of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. Any indemnification provided pursuant to this Article will not be exclusive of any rights to which the person indemnified may otherwise be entitled under any provision of these amended Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, agreement, statute, policy of insurance or otherwise.

ARTICLE XIV: AMENDMENTS

Section 1.

- A. All proposed amendments will be in the possession of the ONA Board of Directors at least forty-five (45) days before the date of the meeting of the House of Delegates.
- B. The Bylaws may be amended or revised at any meeting of the House of Delegates by a two-thirds (2/3) positive vote of the accredited delegates present and voting, provided the proposed amendments have been appended to the call of the meeting.
- C. These Bylaws may be amended without previous notice at any meeting of the House of Delegates by a 99 percent (99%) positive vote of the accredited delegates present and voting.

Section 2

- A. Proposals to increase ONA dues will be:
 - 1. approved by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the House of Delegates while ONA is a national labor organization; or
 - 2. referred by the House of Delegates to ONA membership for approval while ONA is a local of a national labor organization. Approval will be established by majority vote of the members in good standing conducted by secret ballot.

ARTICLE XV: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised will govern meetings of ONA in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XVI: DISSOLUTION

- A. In the event of the dissolution of ONA, its assets, after payment of all indebtedness, obligations, and cost of dissolution, will be distributed in accordance with the Nonprofit Corporations, Corporation and Partnerships General Provisions of the State of Oregon.
- B. ONA may elect to conclude its affairs and voluntarily dissolve by a two-thirds (2/3) positive vote of at least fifty percent (50%) of the members in good standing, or by a ninety percent (90%) positive vote of the delegates attending a House of Delegate meeting, providing at least thirty (30) days but not more than sixty (60) days advance notice of the proposed action and meeting date and location was provided to the delegates. In the event dissolution is approved, the powers of the ONA Board of Directors to manage the affairs of ONA will continue to exist for such time as may be necessary to accomplish dissolution.
- C. Voluntary dissolution of ONA will be subject to the procedures of Oregon law.

ARTICLE XVII: ADOPTED POLICIES

Published adopted policies are supplemental to these Bylaws and cannot be in conflict with these Bylaws. The policies amplify or implement a general statement in these Bylaws and/or contain further instruction and rules related to the administration of ONA. The policies are controlled by the ONA Board of Directors and may be adopted, amended, or rescinded by a three-fourth (3/4) positive vote of the ONA Board. Adopted policies will be published on the members' only section of ONA's website and appended to these Bylaws.
