Learn techniques so you can optimize your website yourself!

Search engines are a very complicated tool that have a huge impact on a business's success. And yet most of the companies involved in search engine optimization (SEO) take advantage of the average business owner's lack of knowledge in this area. This course will teach you white hat optimization techniques that will allow you to save thousands of dollars by optimizing your site yourself for free.

Learn how to hire an SEO to do it for you!

- What is a search engine
- How to set up your website for an on-site optimization
- How to do off-site optimization
- Understand how search engines rank websites
- Identify the elements search engines use to determine our sites ranking
- Understand the steps you need to address to improve our sites ranking
- And much more!
