New Member Announcement

Virginia Urology
is pleased to welcome

Andrew F. Colhoun, MD

Dr. Colhoun grew up in Raleigh, North Carolina and attended North Carolina State University where he obtained a BS in nuclear engineering. During his undergraduate study, he decided to pursue a career in medicine and attended the Medical University of South Carolina and was awarded his MD in Charleston in 2012. He completed his general surgery internship and urology residency at the Virginia Commonwealth University's Medical College of Virginia.

His clinical interests encompass many areas of urology including oncology, reconstruction, erectile dysfunction, stone disease and voiding dysfunction. His research interests include bladder wall biomechanics and plans to continue this research, collaborating with researchers at VCU.

In his spare time, he enjoys spending time with his family as well as fishing, hunting and playing golf.

Dr. Colhoun will be at Virginia Urology Stony Point and St. Francis office locations.
