ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Pat Evans, Valued Member of ISCHA
Pat is currently retired, but remains a valued member of ISCHA. In the past, she has worked on the ISHCA Newsletter Editorial Staff. Pat has been a registered nurse for 44 years. She has worked in the surgical field as a staff nurse on postoperative units, in the operating room and in the office of a Chief of Surgery in both Kentucky and California.

Seventeen years of her career were spent in long term care in Indiana as a Health Services Supervisor, Staff Development Coordinator, Instructor of the CNA class and Director of Nurses for nine years. Before retiring, Pat served as the Interim Mission Advocate and Patient Advocate at Memorial Hospital and Healthcare Center in Jasper, Indiana.

As a public speaker, Pat has given numerous presentations on a variety of medical/nursing topics, motivational themes, communication skills, grief, death and dying, care giving, issues involved in the aging process, classes on “Caring for your Aging Parents” and advanced directives. In addition she designs and presents spiritual retreats.

Jonathan R. Goble, President & Chief Executive Officer, Indiana University Health North Central Region
(includes IU Health North, Saxony and Tipton hospitals)
Jonathan Goble has 30 years of experience in executive management and has led the development of IU Health North Hospital since 2004 as President and Chief Executive Officer. He also serves as President and CEO of the IU Health North Central Region, which includes IU Health Saxony Hospital in Fishers, and IU Health Tipton Hospital along with IU Health North Hospital in Carmel. Prior to joining Indiana University Health, Goble served as CEO and President of LaPorte Regional Health System since 1999, and Executive Vice President/COO of LaPorte Hospital from 1997-1999. In 2002, he received the ACHE Indiana Regent's Award for Community Contributions and Healthcare Leadership, and in 1986 he received the James B. Seaman, Young Administrator of the Year Award from the Iowa Hospital Association.

Goble is a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives and serves on the IHA Council on Hospital Governance Committee. His service to the community includes United Way Executive Champion, Indiana University Health; an advisory board member of the Timmy Foundation; member of the Board of Trustees of IU Health North and IU Health Tipton Hospitals; Rotarian since 1984; Boy Scouts of America, Del-Mi District, Nominating Committee Chairman; and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish Music Ministry since 2005.

Goble is also a guest lecturer at Anderson University, Butler University, IUPUI, the University of Indianapolis, and has been a keynote presenter nationally and internationally on the subject of Preeminent Corporate Culture.

Cathy Sims RN, MSN, Lead Advocate, Guest Services, Methodist Hospitals
Cathy has been a nurse of over 40 years with a background in Critical Care, Emergency Services, Employee Health, and Guest Services. Managing in each of these areas has allowed her to consider the patient experience from many different perspectives and has helped her to see the difference we can make as leaders. She graduated from Purdue University with her Associates Degree in Nursing in 1974 and her Bachelor's Degree in 2010. In early 2015 she graduated from Purdue University with a Masters in the Science of Nursing with a focus in the Nurse Executive track. Cathy is currently the Lead Advocate for Methodist Hospitals which has a two hospital system with campuses located in Gary and Merrillville, Indiana, where she concentrates on creating an environment of service excellence throughout every department.

Brian C. Tabor, Vice President of Government Relations, Indiana Hospital Association
In his role, Brian oversees all of IHA's state and federal legislative initiatives and health policy development. Prior to joining IHA in 2008, Brian worked at the Indiana House of Representatives, where he served as the majority caucus policy director. He has worked for and around the Indiana General Assembly for almost 15 years, also serving as a fiscal analyst for the Indiana State Senate. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science and a master's degree in agricultural economics from Purdue University.
