

Urgent Care
Association of America

Jeffrey P. Collins MD, MA, Chairman

Jeff's work at CCHI and the Chelsea HealthCare Center demonstrate his unwavering commitment to providing the underserved with the care they need and deserve. At MGH, Jeff is also Course Co-Director for the MGH Departments of Medicine, Pediatrics and Medicine/Pediatrics courses in "Urgent Care Medicine" and "Community-Oriented Primary Care." He is an Instructor in Medicine at the Harvard Medical School and a Clinical Instructor of Medicine at the Boston University School of Medicine.

Collins serves on the Board of Directors of the Urgent Care Association of America and the Urgent Care Association of America Foundation. He has conducted research on urgent care access, urgent care referral practices, and adult and pediatric obesity. He has worked in India, Ethiopia, the Dominican Republic, Mexico and the U.S.

As a National Health Service Scholar in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services/Public Health Service, he served three years as Head of Internal Medicine for the Providence Community Health Centers, Inc.

Collins graduated Cum Laude from Bowdoin College with a dual major in Biochemistry and Anthropology. He did graduate work in social and medical anthropology at the University of Rochester. He graduated Cum Laude from the Boston University School of Medicine and as a member of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society. He completed his residency in the Harvard Medical School Combined Internal Medicine and Pediatrics Residency Program.